City of San Diego Temporary Bridge Shelters Introduction

- SDHC, San Diego City Council and Housing Authority of the City of San Diego (Housing Authority) re-allocated up to $6,530,112 in funding previously allotted to HOUSING FIRST – SAN DIEGO, SDHC’s homelessness action plan, to support the City’s Temporary Bridge Shelters.
- SDHC and the City of San Diego (City) entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for the City’s Temporary Bridge Shelters.
- Approvals:
 - November 3, 2017: SDHC Board of Commissioners
 - November 14, 2017: Housing Authority and City Council

City of San Diego Temporary Bridge Shelters Program Overview

- Offer a safe place for men, women, and children experiencing homelessness to receive Bridge Housing, Emergency Shelter, and appropriate services needed while preparing for permanent housing placements using the principles of “Housing First.”
- Housing Navigators work with residents and other agencies to connect persons experiencing homelessness to a variety of resources within the community and assist with housing readiness and exploring housing options.
- Contribute to the regional goals of ensuring instances of homelessness are rare, brief, and non-recurring.

City of San Diego Temporary Bridge Shelters Program Evaluation

- Original agreements provided that a third-party evaluation of the City's Temporary Bridge Shelters would start in their fourth operating month.
 - First Phase: Ensure that the Bridge Model program design, program expectations, and contractual requirements are in alignment with successful outcomes.
 - Second Phase: Ensure operations of the individual Temporary Bridge Shelters are in alignment with the principles of Housing First and maintain fidelity to the Bridge Model.
- Timeline:
 - May 30, 2018: Initial evaluation is due.
 - June 30, 2018: Recommendations for refinement of the program model or individual changes to operational practices will be finalized.
