*Section 3 Business Concern Certification Criteria:

A business is able to self-certify as a Section 3 Business Concern with the San Diego Housing Commission, if in addition to meeting all the applicable state and local regulations, its principal office is located in the County of San Diego and meets the criteria to certify as a Section 3 Business Concern. *Check one or more of the following:

- 51% or more of the business concern is owned by Section 3 Residents; or
- 30% or more of the business concern’s permanent full-time employees are Section 3 Residents, or were Section 3 eligible residents within 3 years of date of first employment with the business concern.

Principal office: The location where the greatest number of employees at any one location perform their work. Exception: Businesses whose primary industry is service or construction, the calculation of the number of employees excludes those employees who perform the majority of their work at job-site locations to fulfill specific contract obligations.

Example: A construction company has two offices—one in Los Angeles, the other in San Diego. Ten employees work at the Los Angeles location performing management and clerical functions. In San Diego, there is a manager, secretary and 28 construction workers performing work on a specific contract. In this example, the principal office is located in Los Angeles because there are ten employees compared to two employees (after excluding the 28 construction workers) in San Diego.

Who is a Section 3 Resident?

- Resident of public housing who resides in the County of San Diego; or
- Resident of the County of San Diego who is low- or very-low income:

2017 FAMILY INCOME LIMITS
FAMILY Size	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Maximum Gross Annual Family Income	$50,950	$58,200	$65,500	$72,750	$78,600	$84,400	$90,250	$96,050

By the execution and delivery of this application to the San Diego Housing Commission, you hereby covenant and agree to provide such documentation, immediately upon demand by the San Diego Housing Commission, as the San Diego Housing Commission may reasonably request, to verify your eligibility for certification as a Section 3 Business Concern.
