Homelessness Services MOU

Introduction

- SDHC began administering homelessness services contracts on behalf of the City of San Diego (City) based on a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between SDHC and the City that first took effect on July 1, 2010.
- This MOU details the roles and responsibilities of both the City and SDHC in the oversight and administration of programs funded by the City's Economic Development Department.
- The current Homelessness Shelters and Services MOU took effect on July 1, 2019, and expires on June 30, 2024.

Homelessness Services MOU

Introduction (Continued)

- SDHC and the City have also entered into MOUs for the operation and administration of homelessness services programs not subject to the Homelessness Shelters and Services MOU.
- These MOUs expire on June 30, 2023, and cover the following programs:
 - The Bridge Shelter Program
 - Transitional Storage Program
 - Homelessness Response Center
- Another MOU for the administration of Homeless Housing, Assistance, and Prevention (HHAP) funding expires on June 30, 2025.

Homelessness Services MOU

Introduction (Continued)

- To streamline administrative processes, SDHC and the City began exploring the utilization of a single MOU to administer the homelessness contracts.
- The draft MOU was crafted over the course of several months by the City and SDHC and covers all programs administered by SDHC on behalf of the City.
- The proposed actions in the report will allow SDHC to enter in the “Master MOU” with the City for the oversight and administration of the City’s Homelessness Services Programs.
- The Master MOU supports the Community Action Plan on Homelessness for the City of San Diego (Action Plan) by authorizing the partnership between the City and SDHC to administer homelessness services programs in San Diego.

Homelessness Services MOU

Overview

- The Master MOU consolidates the five existing MOUs between SDHC and the City into one MOU.
- The five MOUs include:
 - Homelessness Shelters and Services MOU;
 - Bridge Shelter MOU;
 - Transitional Storage Center MOU;
 - Homelessness Response Center MOU; and
 - Homelessness Housing, Assistance, and Prevention (HHAP) MOU.
- Programs administered by SDHC on behalf of the City must be governed by an MOU.

Overview (Continued)

- The Master MOU describes the responsibilities of SDHC and the City in relation to the operation of homelessness shelters, services, and other programs.
- This MOU also serves as an overarching agreement between the City and SDHC to enter into program-specific and administrative agreements detailed in separate:
 - Subrecipient Agreements;
 - Scopes of Work; and
 - Budget Documents.
- These documents are related to the programs described in the Action Plan and the Annual Consolidated Plan, which the City submits each year to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

Homelessness Services MOU

Overview (Continued)

- SDHC manages and oversees City programs that assist individuals and families experiencing homelessness or a housing crisis, including shelter services, system navigation, rapid rehousing and other types of assistance to support individuals and families in accessing appropriate crisis response, supportive services and housing solutions.
- Under this MOU, SDHC will be responsible for the general management, administration and oversight of the majority of the City's shelters and services programs.
- SDHC will generally manage and oversee:
 - Shelter and Related Services, including Crisis Response Services;
 - Day Facilities, Homelessness Response Center, and Related Services;
 - Homelessness Prevention Program and Rapid Rehousing Assistance Programs; and
 - Other Programming and Services-related Workforce Capacity and Training.
