COVID-19 Housing Stability Assistance Program Overview

- February 22, 2021: San Diego City Council authorized the program and initial funding.
- March 15, 2021: Online application launched at covidassistance.sdhc.org
 - Application available in English, Spanish and Vietnamese
- The program helps pay rent and utilities for City of San Diego households with low income that experience financial hardship due to or during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.
- The program also helps pay past-due internet service expenses.

COVID-19 Housing Stability Assistance Program Payments

Payments

- As of November 10, 2021:
 - Payments Disbursed: $117,714,686.35
 - Households Assisted: 13,147
- All of the funding available to help San Diegans through the program has been fully obligated to assist households with low income
 - Including applicants who have preliminary approval, subject to review and confirmation of their documentation.
- Total obligations for assistance payments exceed the funding to help qualifying households.

The COVID-19 Housing Stability Assistance Program helped Eric keep his rental home and avoid homelessness.

Staff Recommendations

That the SDHC Board of Commissioners (Board) recommend that the Housing Authority of the City of San Diego take the following actions:

- 1) Authorize SDHC to execute an amendment to the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between SDHC and the City of San Diego for SDHC to continue to oversee and administer the City of San Diego's COVID-19 Housing Stability Assistance Program with new funding to provide emergency rental assistance and/or utility assistance to households with low income in the City of San Diego that experience financial hardship;
- 2) Authorize SDHC to amend its Fiscal Year 2022 budget in the amount of $27,000,000 in federal American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funds allocated by the State of California to the City of San Diego to be administered by SDHC to provide rental assistance and/or utility assistance to households with low income in the City of San Diego that experience financial hardship and to cover administrative expenses in accordance with federal and state funding requirements;
