Independent Auditors' Report

To the Managing Member of Castellan Holdings LLC and Subsidiaries

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Castellan Holdings LLC and subsidiaries (the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2022, and the related consolidated statement of operations, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements (collectively referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAS"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

CASTELLAN HOLDINGS LLC AND SUBSIDIARIESNotes to Consolidated Financial Statements*For the Year Ended December 31, 2022*NOTE 2: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIESBasis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Castellan and its wholly owned subsidiaries (the "Company"). All intercompany transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Investments in Unconsolidated Real Estate Entities

In accordance with ASC 323, Investments - Equity Method and Joint Ventures ("ASC 323"), the Company uses the equity method of accounting for its investments in unconsolidated entities over which it exercises significant influence but does not have a controlling interest. The equity method of accounting requires the investment to be initially recorded at cost and subsequently adjusted for the Company's share of equity in the unconsolidated entity's earnings or losses.

Variable Interest Entities

The Company accounts for variable interest entities ("VIEs") in accordance with ASC 810. In accordance with ASC 810, an entity is a VIE when: (a) the equity investment at risk in the entity is not sufficient to permit the entity to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support provided by other parties, including the equity holders; (b) the entity's equity holders as a group either (i) lack the direct or indirect ability to make decisions about the entity, (ii) are not obligated to absorb expected losses of the entity or (iii) do not have the right to receive expected residual returns of the entity; or (c) the entity's equity holders have voting rights that are not proportionate to their economic interests. If an entity is deemed to be a VIE pursuant to ASC 810, the enterprise that has both (i) the power to direct the activities of the VIE that most significantly impacts the entity's economic performance and (ii) the obligation to absorb the expected losses of the entity or right to receive benefits from the entity that could be potentially significant to the VIE is considered the primary beneficiary and must consolidate the VIE. In accordance with ASC 810, the Company performs ongoing reassessments of whether it is the primary beneficiary of a VIE. The financial statements of the VIEs for which the Company is considered to be the primary beneficiary, if any, are consolidated in the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Affiliate

For purposes of these consolidated financial statements, an affiliate is defined as an entity under common control and/or ownership, or an individual who effectively owns and/or controls the Company.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with maturities of three months or less upon acquisition to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents as of December 31, 2022.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist of cash held in financial institutions. The Company maintains its cash in various financial institutions. At times, such accounts may be in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") insurance limits. The amount that is federally insured is subject to the FDIC limit of $250,000 per depositor, per insured financial institution. As of December 31, 2022, there was approximately $10,725,000 in excess of FDIC insured limits.

Fees Receivable and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Fees receivable consist of property management income, developer fees, construction services, incentive fees, and other real estate services.

The Company records an allowance for doubtful accounts for all fees receivable not expected to be collected. The Company evaluates the collectability of its fees receivable based on a combination of factors. In circumstances when the Company is aware of a specific customer's inability to meet its financial obligations, the Company records a specific reserve against amounts due. For all other instances, the Company recognizes reserves based on historical experience and review of the individual accounts outstanding. When management determines that all efforts have been exhausted to collect the delinquent fees receivable, they are charged off.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Leasehold improvements are carried at cost and are depreciated when placed into service using the straight-line method over the term of the lease, or its estimated useful life if shorter. Equipment is depreciated on a straight-line method over an estimated useful life ranging from 5 to 10 years. Significant renovations or improvements that extend the life of the real estate are capitalized. Replacements and betterments are capitalized. Expenditures for minor replacements, maintenance, and repairs are charged to operations. The Company reviews the carrying value of its property and equipment for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. If such review indicates that the property and equipment is impaired, when the carrying amount of the property and equipment exceeds the sum of its undiscounted estimated future cash flows, excluding interest charges, the property and equipment's carrying amount is written down to its fair value. There was no impairment adjustment deemed necessary by management for the year ended December 31, 2022.

Property Management Fees and Other Related Income

Income from real estate related fees includes property management income, which is recognized when earned.

Real Estate Lending Transaction Fee Income

The Company's lending transactions fee income is recognized when earned. It includes origination, extension, and exit fees the Company earns from borrowers.

Investment Income

The Company's investment income is derived from its share of earnings or losses, including payment of promote income, generated by its investments in real estate entities. Investment income is also derived from sales of properties.

Income Taxes

The Company is organized as a limited liability company, which is considered a pass-through entity for federal and state income tax purposes. As such, taxable income or loss realized by the Company is allocated to the members in accordance with their respective membership interests, and accordingly, reported on their individual tax returns. No provision for income taxes has been included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

The Company follows the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 740 "Income Taxes", which provides standards for establishing and classifying any tax provisions for uncertain tax positions. The Company evaluates the uncertainties of tax positions taken or expected to be taken on its tax return based on the probability of whether the position will be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The Company uses a more-likely-than-not threshold for recognition and derecognition of tax positions taken or to be taken in a tax return. Management concluded that it had no material uncertain tax liabilities to be recognized at December 31, 2022.

If you would like us to prepare additional returns (e.g., other states, gift or excise tax), or prepare any returns for related taxpayers not contemplated by this Agreement, please include such returns and additional taxpayers on the attached "Schedule 2" and return it to us with your signed Agreement. If you choose to add taxpayers, jurisdictions or other types of returns, this will increase the amount of our fees and expenses described below.

We will advise you if we believe, based on the information you provide us, an income or franchise tax return should be filed in any other jurisdiction, but we will not prepare any such tax return without your approval. It is important that you inform us of any new or expanded activities that could trigger filing requirements in additional state(s), such as the acquisition of property or the hiring of employees in a new state. Activities of a pass-through entity in which you are an owner, partner, member or beneficiary may also trigger additional state tax filings, so please contact us if you have acquired an interest in a new pass-through entity over the past year.

This engagement does not include the preparation of:

- (a) Forms or calculations related to any quarterly federal or state estimated tax payment obligations (or similar withholding obligations) associated with the tax returns covered by this engagement letter; or
- (b) Forms or calculations related to any federal or state applications for extension of time to file the tax returns covered by this engagement letter.

Our fees for the preparation of these forms or calculations are included in any fees quoted in this engagement letter.

We may prepare federal or state applications for extension of time to file the tax returns covered by this engagement letter at our discretion when such forms reflect no amount due and are limited in number (“zero extension forms”). These will be billed in accordance with the fee paragraph below unless the parties agree to a separate arrangement.

Because of their special purpose, nature and format, income tax returns do not constitute financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The tax returns should be used only for income tax purposes and must not be used as a substitute for financial statements. Tax return preparation services do not constitute accounting or auditing services and are not designed to discover fraud, defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist.

We will use our professional judgment in resolving issues regarding reporting positions on your returns whenever the tax law is unclear or uncertain, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities’ interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we will resolve such questions in your favor, as long as it is consistent with the law and our professional duties and obligations. We are prohibited from signing any tax return containing a tax position that in our professional judgment does not conform to the applicable laws and standards of our profession. Should you ask us to sign a tax return that contains such a position, we reserve the right to cease work on your returns, and we accept no responsibility for any damages that may occur as a result. We cannot provide any assurance that any tax positions taken will not be challenged, and if challenged, that the taxing authority will not be successful. If a taxing authority contests a position taken on your returns, it may assess additional tax, interest and penalties, for which we assume no responsibility. There are numerous tax credits, exclusions and deductions for which a detailed review of business or investment activities would be required to determine their availability. Such a detailed review is beyond the scope of services of this Agreement. If you would like us to undertake a detailed review of your activities to identify tax credits, exclusions or deductions, please contact us to discuss the terms of an engagement for these services. For the sake of clarity, should CBIZ agree to respond to inquiries from you or a third-party auditor in connection with any type of vendor audit, examination, verification, “cold comfort letter” or other review (a “Vendor Audit”), you agree to pay CBIZ for all of our time, billed at our then current rates, and expenses incurred in responding to such Vendor Audit.

We will prepare your tax returns based on the information that you provide. You represent and warrant that the information you are supplying to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge as required for the preparation of complete and accurate tax returns. You have final responsibility for the tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them. You should retain all documents that form the basis for the information presented on your tax returns. Please refer to Sections D and L of the STC for additional information.

Any tax advice we offer in conjunction with the preparation of your tax returns (“tax advice”) is based on our assumption (without independent verification) that all of the representations and all of the originals, copies, and signatures of documents reviewed by us are accurate, true, and authentic. Our tax advice is based on the law, regulations, cases, rulings, and other tax authority in effect as of the date the services were rendered. If there are subsequent changes in or to the foregoing tax authorities (for which we shall have no responsibility to advise you), such changes may result in our advice being rendered invalid or may necessitate (upon your request) a reconsideration of the advice.

In addition to the professional fees discussed below, you agree to reimburse us for our direct and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses related to travel and any required or other approved expenditures incurred in connection with our services. We will also assess a 5% technology and administrative fee to cover the cost of technology, processing, and other administrative expenses. Please refer to Section E of the STC for additional information regarding fees.

Our fees for these tax services will be based on the fee quote contained in this paragraph. Based on the information provided by you to us regarding the nature and scope of this engagement, the fee will be listed on Schedule 1.

Changes in the scope of our services, including preparation of additional returns, researching unanticipated technical issues, or performing unanticipated bookkeeping work as a precondition to tax return preparation will result in an increase in this fee, which we will discuss with you prior to performing the additional services. This quote is also dependent upon the accuracy and completeness of the information provided by you to us regarding the nature and scope of this engagement, as well as upon anticipated cooperation from you or your personnel, and the ready availability of all information necessary for us to complete the engagement. If the information provided by you to us regarding the nature and scope of this engagement is not accurate or complete, we do not receive the anticipated cooperation of your personnel, or if the information necessary for us to complete this engagement is not readily available to us, we will discuss this with you and arrive at a revised fee quote.

Additional Services

You are providing your primary contact, financial and business information in order to permit CBIZ to offer you tax and business suggestions when CBIZ deems it appropriate or advantageous to you. You confirm that this service, while creating no duty on the part of CBIZ, is a benefit to you that is separate from and in addition to any tax return preparation services.

While it is our intention to suggest tax and business ideas or services to you, this engagement generally does not include the rendering of any specific tax consulting services. However, we may provide, at your request, limited tax consulting services including, but not limited to, tax projections, responding to inquiries or tax examinations by any governmental agency or tax authority, assisting you in maintaining your accounting and depreciation records, reviewing proposed or completed transactions, or tax research in connection with these matters. These limited consulting services will be subject to the STC and our fees for these additional services will be based upon our prevailing hourly rates effective at the time the services are provided, the time required for work performed, the complexity of any technical issues addressed unless otherwise agreed to by both parties.

If you ask us to perform other services that are not covered by this, or any other, engagement letter, you agree that any such engagements or services performed as a result of such requests will be subject to the STC.

Assessing the Impact of New or Recent Legislation

Due to the complexity and ambiguity of numerous recently enacted tax laws, the IRS will continue to issue new rules and guidance on a regular basis. As a result, there may be aspects of these laws, any legislation enacted after the date of this letter, and interpretive guidance that could affect your current or future years' taxes and reporting. We are happy to help you assess the impact of these laws or guidance on you or your businesses. Unless otherwise indicated, these services are beyond the scope of any tax return preparation or consulting services described herein. If you request such services, we will bill you for the services at our prevailing hourly rates. Such services will be subject to the STC.

Conditions and Limitations

To assist you in understanding the scope of our services and other matters related to our preparation of your tax returns, we have attached a copy of the STC. All of our tax return preparation services are expressly subject to these conditions and limitations, and by signing below, you agree to them.

If this letter accurately describes the arrangement for our services to you, please sign the enclosed copy of this letter and return it to us.

STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICES

A. Services

These Standard Terms and Conditions of Services ("STC") and the engagement letter to which these terms are appended constitute the entire agreement between you and CBIZ for the tax services to be rendered (the "Agreement"). As used herein, the term "tax services", includes only the tax services as described in the attached engagement letter. All decisions in connection with the implementation of CBIZ's tax services in connection with this engagement shall be your responsibility. The tax services contemplated by this Agreement are not intended to include any Personal Financial Planning Services as defined in the AICPA's Statement on Standards in Personal Financial Planning Services. Furthermore, unless explicitly described in the Engagement Letter and agreed to by CBIZ, our services do not include providing any opinion, attestation, certification, advice, or guidance regarding your technical or functional cybersecurity systems, programs, policies or procedures, or any method you employ for using, storing, transmitting, or protecting sensitive information. If you desire such services, they may be provided under a separate agreement. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, your submission of your income tax information to us constitutes acceptance of the engagement letter and STC for this engagement.

B. Third Parties and Internal Use

Except as otherwise agreed, all tax services hereunder shall be solely for your internal purposes and use, and this engagement does not create privity between CBIZ and any person or party (a "third party") other than you. This engagement is not intended for the express or implied benefit of any third party. No third party is entitled to rely, in any manner or for any purpose, on the tax services provided by CBIZ. In order to protect CBIZ from any unauthorized reliance or claims, you further agree, with respect to the tax services provided by CBIZ and any associated deliverable, that you will not distribute, make available, circulate, quote to or allow use by any third party without including the following written disclaimer: "By accepting access to this document or information you acknowledge that such access creates no rights or privity between you and CBIZ, and you acknowledge and agree that you have no right to rely on this information and assume all risks in doing so." However, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as limiting or restricting such disclosure for your tax return filing purposes. You agree to hold CBIZ harmless from any claims or liability that may arise out of or result from your disclosure of, or from CBIZ complying with your request to disclose or share, your information with third-parties.

C. Confidentiality

CBIZ will maintain the confidentiality of your information in accordance with applicable professional standards. CBIZ will use reasonable precautions to protect your "Confidential Information," which means (i) information contained in your internal financial and business records, (ii) "tax return information" as defined in Treasury Regulation § 301.7216-1(b)(3), and (iii) other information concerning you or your business that is marked "confidential" or otherwise identified as "confidential" in writing at the time of disclosure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information does not include information (i) that is or becomes publicly available or generally known to persons in your industry without breach of our obligations under this section, (ii) received by us after the termination of the Engagement Letter, or (iii) is deidentified or anonymized by CBIZ and separated from the client's data.

We may disclose your Confidential Information to our employees, independent contractors and affiliates, including their employees and independent contractors, as necessary to provide our services. You authorize CBIZ to engage such affiliates and third parties to provide services on our behalf and, in this context, provide them with access to your Confidential Information. Without limiting the foregoing, we may in certain circumstances disclose your Confidential Information to software vendors for the purpose of obtaining technical support in the course of providing services to you, but it is our policy to require these vendors to maintain the confidentiality of confidential information disclosed to them. We may also disclose Confidential Information if required by a court or governmental agency, but we will use commercially reasonable efforts to inform you, unless prohibited by law, prior to disclosure. To protect your Confidential Information, you agree that you will not disclose any Confidential Information to us except as we request or as necessary for us to provide our services.

We may use subcontractors, which may be located outside the U.S., to assist us in the process of preparing your tax returns. We have dedicated teams of professionals to assist in serving you. CBIZ is sensitive to concerns regarding the handling of personal and confidential information and can share further information regarding how we and our subcontractors protect your information upon request. In order to safeguard the confidentiality of client information, both CBIZ and any subcontractors we may use have established internal policies, procedures and controls designed to maintain data security and protect privacy. We will not utilize a subcontractor without a written confidentiality agreement in place to prevent the unauthorized release of client information.

We may use the information you provide to us in connection with this engagement ("Information") to check for conflicts of interest and to verify independence. We may disclose the Information to any company, or any employee of such company, that is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by CBIZ, Inc. ("Affiliate"). Information may also be used in CBIZ's efforts to improve the services provided, develop additional services we can offer, and to provide you with access to the different types of services offered by our Affiliates, including where appropriate, tax consulting, general business consulting, retirement or estate planning, business succession, asset acquisition or disposition, payroll, benefits, insurance, wealth management and investing, human resources, accounting, valuation, internal audit, mergers and acquisitions, and technology consulting, or to prepare subsequent years' engagement letters. You have the right to limit the Information you wish to have used or disclosed. We may use the Information to compile lists in order to provide you with tax or business information, newsletters or other correspondence determined from the Information to be relevant to you or your industry, and information on other products or services offered by our Affiliates. We may also use and disclose the Information as subsequently requested or directed by you. We will not disclose Information to any person who is not an Affiliate without obtaining a separate consent to such disclosure except (a) as otherwise specifically provided herein, or (b) at your request or direction. Unless you specify otherwise, the consent to the use and disclosure of the Information provided herein will be valid until the statute of limitations to assess any tax by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to the tax return has expired.

Periodically, we may perform benchmarking studies on an industry basis to provide additional value-added information to our clients. You consent to our sharing of your Confidential Information with third parties for these purposes. Such benchmarking studies will be general in nature and the information provided will not contain any identifying features that can be attributed to you. We may also aggregate and share internally certain deidentified or anonymized data in our efforts to improve the services we offer and provide to our clients.

D. Client Responsibilities

You are responsible for making financial records and related information available to us to enable us to provide the tax services described herein, but you agree to provide only the information that is necessary and that we request. CBIZ will have no responsibility for information, records, or data you provide to us that we did not request, including data outside the scope of the engagement. CBIZ shall be entitled to assume and rely on, without independent verification, the accuracy of all representations, assumptions, information and data that you and your representatives provide to CBIZ. All assumptions, representations, information and data to be supplied by you and your representatives will be complete and accurate. You represent and warrant that you maintain proper records and otherwise satisfy the criteria to claim and substantiate deductions for meals, entertainment, travel, gifts, charitable contributions, and vehicle use (if applicable) as required by federal law. The rules regarding the deductibility of various expenses, e.g., charitable contributions, continue to grow more onerous. Please consult the most recent versions of IRS Publications if you have questions, or consult with us. CBIZ may use information and data furnished by others; however, CBIZ shall not be responsible for, and CBIZ shall provide no assurance regarding, the accuracy and completeness of any such information or data.

Except as specifically provided herein, CBIZ shall not assume any responsibility for any financial reporting with respect to the tax services provided hereunder. You acknowledge and understand that CBIZ is providing no attest services of any kind, scope or nature whatsoever, as part of this engagement. CBIZ shall have no responsibility to address any legal matters or questions of law in connection with this engagement.

You shall cooperate with CBIZ in the performance by CBIZ of its tax services hereunder, including, without limitation, providing CBIZ with reasonable facilities and timely access to necessary data, information, and your personnel. You shall be responsible for the performance of your personnel and agents and for the accuracy and completeness of all data and information provided to CBIZ for purposes of the performance by CBIZ of its tax services hereunder.

E. Fees and Payment; Subpoenas and Post-Engagement Inquiries

Except to the extent specifically addressed in the applicable Engagement Letter or Project Addendum, the following terms in this Section E will apply. In the case of a conflict between these terms and the terms of the applicable Engagement Letter or Project Addendum, the Engagement Letter or Project Addendum will control. Our invoices for these consulting services will be rendered each month as work progresses and are payable on presentation. The invoices may designate CBIZ, Inc. as the receiving party for ACH and wire payments. If properly submitted invoices are not paid within 30 days of the invoice date, a late charge may accrue at the lesser of (i) 1% per month or (ii) the highest rate allowable by law. Without limiting its rights or remedies, CBIZ shall have the right to halt or terminate entirely its consulting services until full payment is received on such past due invoices. In the case of nonpayment, you will be liable for any and all costs and fees incurred by CBIZ to collect the fees contemplated herein. The failure of CBIZ to exercise its right to suspend or terminate work shall not constitute a waiver by CBIZ of any right or remedy, and CBIZ will bear no liability to you if work is suspended or terminated because of nonpayment. In the event of a termination of this engagement pursuant to section F below, you agree to compensate CBIZ for consulting services performed and expenses incurred through the effective date of termination. All outstanding bills will be paid in full prior to the release of any information or prior to final product or service delivery, unless other arrangements to pay your bill have been agreed upon.

F. Term

This engagement shall conclude on the completion and delivery of CBIZ's tax services hereunder. This engagement may be terminated by either party at any time by giving written notice to the other party not less than 10 business days before the effective date of termination. The following sections of this Agreement will survive completion of the Services or its earlier termination, and will apply to any and all services provided by CBIZ in the future, unless and until these STC are superseded by a new Engagement Letter and STC: Fees and Payment; Subpoenas and Post-Engagement Inquiries, Confidentiality, Third Parties and Internal Use, Property and Record Retention, Employment Offers to Our Personnel, Dispute Resolution and Jury Trial Waiver, Governing Law and Severability, Fees and Payment, Limitation on Damages, Indemnification and such other provisions of this Agreement which by their nature are intended to survive.

G. General

This Agreement forms the entire agreement between the parties relating to the services, and replaces and supersedes any previous proposals, correspondence, understandings or other communications whether written or oral, unless specifically incorporated by this Agreement. This Agreement may only be amended or modified in a writing executed by both parties. These STC may be incorporated by reference into, and shall therefore become a part of, any subsequent letter of reengagement. Should our STC change in subsequent years, we will notify you of those changes and solicit your agreement thereto. Such changes will then be considered an enforceable part of this Agreement from that point forward. Handwritten changes to this Agreement will have no effect and will not constitute a counteroffer. This agreement shall be binding on all transferees, successors and assigns of both CBIZ and you. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any delay or failure to perform any of the services or obligations set forth in this Agreement due to causes beyond its reasonable control. Each party acknowledges that this was a negotiated contract, and as a result, no part of this contract shall be construed against either party based on drafting of the contract. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid under any applicable statute or rule of law, it is to that extent to be deemed omitted, and the balance of the Agreement shall remain enforceable. For evidentiary purposes, an electronic scan (e.g., PDF file) of this executed Engagement Letter and these STC shall be deemed by the parties to be a true, authenticated document which is admissible into evidence.

No delay or omission by either party in exercising any right or power shall impair such right or power or be construed to be a waiver. A waiver by either party of any of the covenants to be performed by the other or any breach thereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of any succeeding breach or of any other covenant. No waiver or discharge shall be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the party against whom such waiver or discharge is sought to be enforced.

You acknowledge and agree that you will be solely responsible for any and all applicable sales and use tax due in connection with the services provided under this Agreement.

These STC contemplate that this engagement may involve the preparation of multiple returns for multiple parties, and those parties may be any combination of individuals, trusts, or entities. If the only tax services covered by this engagement are being offered exclusively to individuals, trusts or entities, these STC should be interpreted accordingly. The person signing the engagement letter represents and warrants that he or she has express authority to bind any individual, trust or entity for whom services are being rendered under this engagement to the terms of this engagement letter and to these STC. Furthermore, Signatory warrants and represents that he or she will provide a copy of the "NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES CBIZ, INC. and its subsidiaries" to each person identified herein for whom we are preparing a Form 1040.

The use of the singular or plural may be used herein for ease of presentation, but should be read to include the other where appropriate.

It is common practice for professional service firms such as ours, in discussions with prospective clients, to make reference to prior work, and we would like to have the opportunity to do so with respect to this assignment. Unless you inform CBIZ to the contrary, on completion of this assignment we understand that we will be entitled to make reference to having undertaken it, including your name and logo, if applicable, and a general description of the nature of the engagement, in CBIZ newsletters and publications and discussions with third parties regarding work opportunities.

H. Foreign Account / Relationship Reporting

Any U.S. citizen or resident (including individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts and estates) who has a financial interest in, or signature or other authority over, "foreign financial accounts" with an aggregate value exceeding $10,000 at any time during the prior calendar year, is required to report that relationship to the U.S. Department of the Treasury on FinCEN Form 114, Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts Report (FBAR). Filing requirements also apply to those with direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign financial accounts of its own. Because persons with a financial interest and persons with signature authority are required to submit filings, a single account may require multiple filings. For example, a corporate-owned foreign account would require filings by the corporation and by the individual corporate officers with signature authority. FinCEN Form 114 must be filed electronically by April 15, but the due date of the filing can be extended until October 15.

"Foreign financial accounts", for purposes of this requirement, are financial accounts located in a foreign jurisdiction and may include, but are not limited to, bank accounts, mutual funds, securities or brokerage accounts, life insurance, credit cards, retirement plans and interests in partnerships, trusts or other pass-through entities having foreign accounts.

In addition, the Internal Revenue Service also requires information reporting under applicable Internal Revenue Code sections and related regulations, and the respective IRS tax forms are due when your income tax return is due, including extensions. The IRS reporting requirements are in addition to the U.S. Department of the Treasury reporting requirements stated above. Therefore, if you fall into one of the categories enumerated below, or if you have any direct or indirect foreign interests, you may be required to file applicable IRS forms.

- You are an individual or entity with ownership of foreign financial assets and meet the specified criteria (Form 8938);
- You are an officer, director or shareholder with respect to certain foreign corporations (Form 5471);
- You are a foreign-owned U.S. corporation or foreign corporation engaged in a U.S. trade or business (Form 5472);
- You are a U.S. transferor of property to a foreign corporation (Form 926);
- You are a U.S. person with an interest in a foreign trust (Forms 3520 and 3520-A); or
- You are a U.S. person with interests in a foreign partnership (Form 8865).

Failure to timely file the appropriate forms with the U.S. Department of the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service may result in substantial monetary penalties. By signing this Agreement, you accept responsibility for informing us if you believe that you may have foreign reporting requirements with the U.S. Department of the Treasury and/or Internal Revenue Service. We assume no liability for penalties associated with the failure to file, or untimely filing, of any of these forms.

We are able to assist you in the preparation of these filings if you request. These services are beyond the scope of normal tax return preparation and, unless we prepared these forms for you last year, these services will result in an additional fee beyond what is otherwise quoted in this Agreement.

I. Independent Contractor

It is understood and agreed that each of the parties hereto is an independent contractor and that neither party is, nor shall be considered to be, an agent, partner, joint venturer, or representative of the other. Neither party shall act or represent itself, directly or by implication, as an agent of the other or in any manner assume or create any obligation of behalf of, or in the name of, the other.

J. Employment Offers to Our Personnel

During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one year thereafter, the parties agree not to hire, solicit, or attempt to solicit, whether directly or indirectly, the services of any staff, employee, consultant, or subcontractor of the other party without the prior written consent of that party. Violation of this provision shall, in addition to other relief, require the breaching party to compensate the non-breaching party with 100 percent of the solicited person's annual compensation.

K. Safe Environment

You agree that in any circumstances wherein CBIZ personnel are required to work at any premises or location operated or controlled by you, you will take all actions and precautions necessary to ensure that your premises are free from all known or reasonably foreseeable safety hazards, and all forms of harassment and discrimination.

L. Property and Record Retention

The workpapers and files which CBIZ generates in connection with this engagement are the property of CBIZ. We do not retain any original client records and will return those to you at the completion of this engagement. It is your responsibility to retain and protect your records for possible future use, including, but not limited to, potential examination by any government or regulatory agencies. All CBIZ workpapers and files will be retained pursuant to CBIZ's document retention policy. Your need to retain documents may differ from the CBIZ document retention policy for a myriad of legal reasons having nothing to do with this engagement. Accordingly, you should contact your own legal counsel should you have a question about document retention. CBIZ retains copies of Confidential Information and Information received in connection with the relevant engagement in its confidential working papers in accordance with applicable professional standards, and in the case of a conflict between these terms and any other agreement between the parties this term shall govern.

M. Electronic Communication

In the interest of being responsive and facilitating our services to you, we may communicate electronically over the Internet, for example, using email and portals to transfer files. Such communications may include information that is confidential or otherwise sensitive to you. CBIZ employs controls and processes designed to maintain the security of data in transit and at rest, but such controls and processes cannot prevent all unauthorized or criminal activity resulting in access to communications or data. While we will use our best efforts to keep such communications secure in accordance with our obligations under applicable laws and professional standards, we have no control over the unauthorized interception of these communications once they have been sent.

Should you request that we use a public or third-party electronic file transfer service in connection with this engagement, you acknowledge that CBIZ makes no representations or warranties regarding the security of data transmitted to and from, or stored by, that public or third-party electronic file transfer service and you assume responsibility for all use of such service. You agree that CBIZ is not responsible for any loss, or unauthorized interception, of data transmitted to and from, or stored by, that public or third-party electronic file transfer service.

N. Governing Law and Severability

These STC, the engagement letter to which these terms are appended, and any and all claims relating to or arising out of this Agreement or related to CBIZ's services, whether sounding in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the state of Ohio, with venue and jurisdiction in Ohio. If any provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, such provision shall not affect the other provisions, but such unenforceable provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to render it enforceable, preserving to the fullest extent permissible the intent of the parties set forth in this Agreement.

O. Dispute Resolution and Jury Trial Waiver

Because there are inherent difficulties in recalling or preserving information as the period after an engagement increases, you agree that, notwithstanding any applicable statute of limitations, you must file any claim based on this engagement in court within twelve (12) months after performance of our services under the relevant engagement.

If any dispute, controversy or claim arises in connection with the performance or breach of this agreement, except with respect to the nonpayment or collection of CBIZ's fees, either party may, upon written notice to the other party, request that the matter be mediated. Such mediation will be conducted by a mediator appointed by and pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association or such other neutral facilitator acceptable to both parties. Both parties will exert their best efforts to discuss with each other in good faith their respective positions in an attempt to finally resolve such dispute or controversy.

Each party may disclose any facts to the other party or to the mediator which it, in good faith, considers necessary to resolve the matter. All such discussions, however, will be for the purpose of assisting in settlement efforts and will not be admissible in any subsequent litigation against the disclosing party. Except as agreed by both parties, the mediator will keep confidential all information disclosed during negotiations. The mediator may not act as a witness for either party in any subsequent arbitration between the parties.

The mediation proceedings will conclude within sixty days from receipt of the written notice unless extended or terminated sooner by mutual consent. Each party will be responsible for its own expenses. The fees and expenses of the mediator, if any, will be borne equally by the parties. If the parties cannot resolve a dispute not related to fees through mediation, either party may pursue action in a court of competent jurisdiction as set forth in Section N of these STC.

Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard each of the parties irrevocably, voluntarily and knowingly waives its right to a jury trial of any claim or cause of action based upon or arising out of this agreement or any dealings between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof. The scope of this waiver is intended to be all-encompassing. It includes any and all disputes that may be filed in any court and that relate to the subject matter of this agreement, including, but not limited to, contract claims, tort claims, breach of duty claims and all other common law and statutory claims. It also includes any and all such claims that may be brought against CBIZ, its affiliates and any of their respective personnel, current or former.

P. Limitation on Damages

Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, you agree that CBIZ, any entity related to it and their respective personnel, current or former, shall not be liable to you for any claims, liabilities, or expenses relating to this engagement for an aggregate amount in excess of the fees paid by you to CBIZ pursuant to this engagement, except to the extent finally judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith, fraud or intentional misconduct of CBIZ. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, in no event shall CBIZ, any entity related to it or their respective personnel, current or former, be liable for consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive, or exemplary losses or damages relating to this engagement. This limitation on liability provision shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, statute, tort (such as negligence), professional standard, or otherwise. Further, CBIZ will bear no liability in the case of cybersecurity incidents perpetrated by criminal actors that result in unauthorized access to your data, except to the extent such incident resulted from CBIZ's negligence, fraud or intentional misconduct, in which case CBIZ liability will be limited as provided above in this Section P.

Q. Inherent Conflicts of Interest

CBIZ cannot represent a client when there is a significant risk that the representation of one or more clients will be materially limited by the practitioner's responsibilities to another client, for example (a "conflict of interest"), unless all affected parties have waived the conflict of interest in writing. In some very common situations there are inherent potential conflicts of interest between or among clients and others. For example, an entity, such as a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, has potential conflicts of interest with its respective shareholders, partners or members, board members, officers, management team or employees (collectively "Executives"). Conflicts are present in almost any financial decision of the entity; for example, certain tax elections required to be made by the entity may not benefit all Executives equally, or decisions to make capital improvements, borrow money or admit new owners may have a financial impact on existing Executives. Another example of common inherent conflicts of interest exist between or among estates, trusts or similar entities represented by a fiduciary ("Estate") or a person engaged in succession planning or other disposition of assets ("Grantor"), and the respective primary and contingent beneficiaries (“Beneficiaries”). Tax elections, return positions, or other decisions regarding assets or investments may be required to be made by the Estate, and those elections, positions or decisions may not benefit all Beneficiaries equally. It is common for CBIZ to provide tax advice and prepare tax returns for both entities and Estates, and their Executives or Beneficiaries. If CBIZ represents multiple parties in any of the situations described, you hereby acknowledge such conflicts of interest and agree that CBIZ can advise and prepare tax returns for those entities, Estates, Executives or Beneficiaries, as well as perform the services described in this engagement letter on your behalf. Furthermore, in addition to tax compliance and consulting, CBIZ, Inc., through subsidiary entities, offers several different types of services to its clients, including employee benefits consulting and compliance, property and casualty insurance, life insurance, payroll and other services (collectively “Affiliated Services”). CBIZ may refer our clients to others who provide Affiliated Services, and there may be at any given time financial incentives to individuals or to CBIZ if a client uses such Affiliated Services. Such financial incentives may be viewed as creating a conflict of interest for CBIZ. If CBIZ refers you to someone providing Affiliated Services and you agree to use one or more of such Affiliated Services, you hereby acknowledge such conflict of interest and agree that CBIZ can perform the services described in this engagement letter on your behalf. Finally, because CBIZ and its affiliates comprise a large national practice of professional services providers serving clients across the country who operate in a broad range of industries, CBIZ may provide services to other clients who may operate in the same industry as you or be competitors and whose interests may conflict with yours. However, we do not accept any engagements that would require us to represent two clients regarding a common matter unless a conflict waiver is obtained from all parties prior to our engagement. When CBIZ or its affiliates provide services that are not substantially related to matters in which we serve you, you hereby waive any such potential, perceived or actual conflict of interest and agree that CBIZ can perform the services described in this engagement letter on your behalf.

R. Limitations on Oral and Email Communication

We may discuss with you our views regarding the tax treatment of certain items and may provide you with tax information in the body of an email. Any advice or information delivered orally or in the body of an email (as opposed to a memorandum delivered as an email attachment) will be based upon limited tax research and a limited discussion and analysis of the underlying facts. Additional research or a more complete review of the facts could affect our analysis and conclusions. Because of these limitations and the related risks, it may not be appropriate to proceed with any transaction solely on the basis of any oral or email communication, and we will not be liable for any loss, cost, or expense resulting from your decision to rely on any oral or email communication.

S. Indemnification

Because this engagement is entered into solely between CBIZ and you, and both parties intend only to create privity with each other and no third parties, unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, you shall indemnify and hold harmless CBIZ and its personnel from and against any third-party causes of action, damages (whether compensatory, consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive, exemplary, or of any other type or nature), costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees and the reasonable time and expenses of CBIZ’s personnel involved) brought against or involving CBIZ at any time and in any way arising out of or relating to CBIZ’s services under this engagement, except to the extent judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith, gross negligence, or willful or intentional misconduct of CBIZ’s personnel. This includes, without limitation, reimbursing each CBIZ Indemnified Person promptly for all legal and other expenses reasonably incurred by it in connection with investigating, preparing to defend or defending, responding to subpoenas or other requests for production of documents or testimony, or otherwise providing evidence in or preparing to serve or serving as a witness with respect to, any third-party lawsuits, investigations, claims or other proceedings relating in any way to the rendering of services by CBIZ hereunder. This provision shall survive the termination of this agreement for any reason, and shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise.

If any action or proceeding (any of the foregoing being a "Claim") is threatened or commenced by any third party against CBIZ that you are obligated to defend or indemnify under this Agreement, then written notice thereof shall be given to you as promptly as practicable. After such notice and only so long as CBIZ's and your interests with respect to the claim remain consistent, no conflict exists, and, by your control of the defense, CBIZ's insurance is not voided or otherwise compromised in any way, you shall be entitled, if you so elect in writing within ten days after receipt of such notice, to take control of the defense and investigation of such Claim and to employ and engage attorneys to handle and defend the same, at your sole cost and expense, with the approval of CBIZ, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. CBIZ shall cooperate in all reasonable respects with you and your attorneys in the investigation, trial and defense of such Claim and any appeal arising therefrom; provided, however, that CBIZ may, at its own cost and expense, participate, through its attorneys or otherwise, in such investigation, trial and defense of such Claim and any appeal arising therefrom. You shall enter into no settlement of a Claim that involves a remedy other than the payment of money by solely you without the prior consent of CBIZ.

After notice by you to CBIZ of your election to assume full control of the defense of any such Claim, and CBIZ's approval of selected counsel, you shall not be liable to CBIZ for any legal expenses incurred thereafter by CBIZ in connection with the defense of that Claim. If you do not assume full control over the defense of a Claim, then you may participate in such defense, at your sole cost and expense, and CBIZ shall have the right to defend you in such manner as it may deem appropriate, at your cost and expense.

Terms and Conditions Applicable Only to Entities

T. Use of Mayer Hoffman McCann

In the event that you engage Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C., or any other entity associated with CBIZ, to provide you with attest services (collectively "MHM PC"), we may disclose the information you provide to us in connection with this engagement to MHM PC in order to facilitate its performance of those services. In those circumstances only, you authorize MHM PC to provide us access to all of your files and accounting, tax, financial and other information in its possession for the purpose of providing all tax services requested.
