

REPORT

DATE ISSUED: August 22, 2008 REPORT NO.:HCR08-103

ATTENTION: Chair and Members of the Housing Commission
For the Agenda of September 19, 2008

SUBJECT: Proposed Revisions to Policy 101.000 "Conflict of Interest Code and Related Provisions."

REQUESTED ACTION:

Approval of the revised Policy 101.000 "Conflict of Interest Code and Related Provisions."

STAFF RECOMMENDATION:

That the Housing Commission Board approves Policy 101.000 "Conflict of Interest Code and Related Provisions" as revised by the Housing Commission's General Counsel.

SUMMARY:

California Government Code §87306.5 requires all public agencies to review their conflict of interest codes biennially. The Conflict of Interest Code and Related Provisions Policy 101.000 was last reviewed and approved in 2006. The biennial review requires the Housing Commission to review the Conflict of Interest Code and Related Provisions Policy for compliance with Government Code §§87302(a) and 87303, which involve the specific enumeration of positions at the Commission that make or participate in making governmental decisions.

DISCUSSION:

The Conflict of Interest Code and Related Provisions Policy was originally issued in November 1994 and has been revised periodically since. The most recent revision occurred in December 2006. Government Code §87306.5 requires all public agencies to review their conflict of interest codes by October 1st of every even-numbered year. Revision of the Conflict of Interest Code and Related Provisions Policy is due in October 2008.

The Housing Commission has the authority to adopt and amend its conflict of interest code. San Diego Municipal Code §98.0301 grants the Housing Commission administrative authority to approve a conflict of interest code and grants the authority to adopt such codes to the Housing Authority of the City of San Diego. The Housing Authority has since delegated the responsibility for enacting revisions to certain operational policies, including the amendment of its conflict of interest code to the Housing Commission.

A conflict of interest code must provide reasonable assurance that all foreseeable potential conflict of interest situations will be disclosed or prevented, but must also take into consideration the privacy interests of public officials. (See Gov. C. §87309 and Alperin, Anthony Saul, Deputy City Attorney, Los Angeles 3 FPPC 77 (No. 76-084, Aug. 18, 1977).) Government Code §87200 sets forth the key requirements for the disclosure provisions of a conflict of interest code, requiring the specific enumeration of positions involving the making or participation in the making of decisions which may foreseeably have a material effect on any financial interest. For each such position, the conflict of interest code must enumerate the types of investments, business positions, interests in real property, and sources of income which are reportable (i.e. if the reportable interest may foreseeably be affected materially by any decision made or participated in by the designated employee by virtue of his or her position.)

Based on these provisions, the Conflict of Interest Code and Related Provisions Policy has been revised to require full disclosure for positions that have broad decision-making authority and more limited disclosure for positions with limited decision-making authority.

SUMMARY OF REVISIONS:

The changes to the Conflict of Interest and Related Provisions Policy contain minor changes to clarify the use of the appendices and correct inconsistencies.

Appendix A was revised to include the type of disclosure required for each enumerated position. Any and all obsolete titles or positions were removed and any new positions were added. Further, positions that manage public investments were moved from Appendix C to Appendix A, under the applicable heading, for continuity.

Appendix B was revised to create five distinct disclosure categories:

1. Full Disclosure - Type I: These designated positions must disclose any and all interests in real property, investments, business positions, sources of income and gifts.
2. Full Disclosure - Type II: These designated positions must disclose any and all interest in investments, business positions, sources of income and gifts, but are not required to disclose interests in real property.
3. Limited Disclosure - Type I: These designated positions primarily contract on behalf of the Commission and are required to disclose any interests in investments, business positions, sources of income and gifts that arise out of sources providing goods or services similar to the type utilized by that employee's department.
4. Limited Disclosure – Type II: These designated positions generally provide services and/or grants and must disclose any interest in investments, business positions, sources of income or gifts that arise out of sources of the type that could receive services and/or grants from the Commission.
5. Limited Disclosure - Type III: These designated positions must make the same disclosures as Limited Disclosure Type II, but also must disclose real property interests.

Language from Appendix C addressing the President and Chief Executive Officer's authority to waive some disclosure requirements for certain consultants who are hired to perform a limited range of duties was moved to Appendix A and the language was changed to permit this waiver determination, rather than requiring it.

PREVIOUS ACTIONS:

On December 15, 2006, the Housing Commission conducted a review of and approved revisions of Policy 101.000 "Conflict of Interest Code". On July 17, 2001, the Housing Authority delegated the responsibility for certain operational policies to the Housing Commission, including the conflict of interest policies.

ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW:

This proposed transaction is not a "project" pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA); no CEQA environmental review is required. Because no federal funding would result from this action, processing under the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) is not required.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles B. Christensen

- 2.2 The Standard Code as referenced in 2 Cal. Code of Regulations Section 18730 is hereby adopted by the San Diego Housing Commission. A true and correct copy of the standard code contained in 2 Cal. Code of Regulations Section 18730 may be obtained by contacting the San Diego Housing Commission offices, located at 1122 Broadway, San Diego, CA 92101. Said copy of the Code of Regulations is incorporated herein by reference.
- 2.3 2 Cal. Code of Regulations 18730. Provisions of Conflict of Interest Code. Incorporation by reference of the terms of this regulation along with the designation of employees and the formulation of disclosure categories in the Appendix referred to below constitute the adoption and promulgation of a conflict of interest code within the meaning of Government Code Section 87300 or the amendment of a conflict of interest code within the meaning of Government Code Section 87306 if the terms of this regulation are substituted for terms of a conflict of interest code already in effect. A code so amended or adopted and promulgated requires the reporting of reportable items in a manner substantially equivalent to the requirements of Article 2 of Chapter 7 of the Political Reform Act, Government Code Sections 81000, et seq. The requirements of a conflict of interest code are in addition to other requirements of the Political Reform Act, such as the general prohibition against conflicts of interest contained in Government Code Section 87100, and to other state or local laws pertaining to conflicts of interest.
- 2.4 General Definitions:
- A. Designated Employees, Disclosure Categories, Definitions: The designation of officers and employees, disclosure categories, and definitions referenced in the conflict of interest code amended or adopted and promulgated pursuant to this regulation are as follows:
- (i) Designated Employees The persons holding positions listed in Appendix A are designated employees. It has been determined that these persons make or participate in the making of decisions which may have a foreseeable material effect on financial interests.
- (ii) Disclosure Categories This Code does not establish any disclosure obligation for those designated employees who are also specified in Government Code Section 87200 if they are designated in this code in that same capacity or if the geographical jurisdiction of this agency is the same as or is wholly included within the jurisdiction in which those persons must report their financial interests pursuant to Article 2 of Chapter 7 of the Political Reform Act, Government Code Sections 87200, et seq.¹ Such persons are covered by this code for disqualification purposes only. With respect to all other designated employees and positions, the disclosure categories set forth in Appendix B specify which kinds of financial interests are reportable. Such a designated employee or position shall disclose in his/her statement of economic interests those financial interests he/she has which are of the kind described in the disclosure categories to which he/she is assigned in Appendix A. It has been determined that the financial interests set forth in a designated employee's or position's disclosure categories are the kinds of financial interests which he/she foreseeably can affect materially through the conduct of his/her office.

¹ Designated employees who are required to file statements of economic interests under any other agency's Conflict of Interest Code, or under Article 2 for a different jurisdiction, may expand their statement of economic interests to cover reportable interests in both jurisdictions, and file copies of this expanded statement with both entities in lieu of filing separate and distinct statements, provided that each copy of such expanded statement filed in place of an original is signed and verified by the designated employee as if it were an original. See Government Code Section 81004.
