

The San Diego Housing Commission (SDHC) collaborates with the City of San Diego, County of San Diego, Regional Task Force on the Homeless, developers, landlords, service providers and additional partners to identify solutions to homelessness. These solutions are rooted in the national “housing first” model, which is to provide housing as quickly as possible, with supportive services as needed.

HOUSING FIRST – SAN DIEGO

SDHC’s homelessness action plan, HOUSING FIRST – SAN DIEGO, has created more than 8,700 housing opportunities in five years for San Diegans experiencing homelessness.

Launched on November 12, 2014, HOUSING FIRST – SAN DIEGO is an effective, diverse funding and housing strategy to create permanent housing opportunities individuals and families experiencing homelessness. The current phase, which began July 1, 2017, surpassed its three-year goal of 3,000 housing opportunities in less than two years.

SDHC-Administered Homelessness Programs

SDHC also administers the City of San Diego's Homeless Shelters and Services Programs, as well as federal Continuum of Care permanent supportive housing and rapid rehousing programs.
