Family Self-Sufficiency Program

Career Advice

Employment Referrals

Financial Education

Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) is a voluntary, two-year program that includes job training, career planning, and financial literacy education, such as budgeting, saving, and establishing good credit.

Participants may earn up to $10,000 in an interest-bearing escrow account as they achieve educational and employment-related goals.

When they graduate from FSS, participants may use these funds as they wish.

To graduate, FSS program participants must achieve all of the goals in their career plan, no longer receive government cash assistance, and work at least 32 hours a week.
