The Development

Cuatro at City Heights is a proposed 117-unit, new construction, scattered-site, mixed-use, transit-oriented development at four sites in the City Heights neighborhood in San Diego. The four infill, vacant sites are located at 4050 El Cajon Boulevard, 3951 University Avenue, 4050 University Avenue and 4102-4122 University Avenue, San Diego, CA 92105. A site map is at Attachment 1. Of the 115 affordable apartments, 85 units will be reserved as general affordable housing units for low-income families, including large families, consistent with California Tax Credit Allocation Committee (CTCAC) definitions and regulations, and 30 units will be reserved for veterans with low income experiencing homelessness. Of these 30 units, six will be reserved for veterans experiencing homelessness with a disabling condition. In addition, two units will be on-site managers’ units.

Cuatro at City Heights will include approximately 15,000 square feet of commercial space. City Heights Community Development Corporation will be relocating its offices to 2,500 square feet of commercial space at 4050 University Avenue. United Women of East Africa will purchase the 12,500 square feet of commercial space at 4102-4122 University Avenue. United Women of East Africa will partner with other local immigrant groups to make immigrant services available to the City Heights Community at one convenient location. The commercial cold shell development costs will be covered by the Commercial Tenant Contribution of approximately $4 million. The tax-exempt bonds will not be used to finance the commercial portion of the development. Any tenant improvements expected to be made to the commercial portion will be the responsibility of the tenants. Tenant improvements are to be completed at a later date.

The ownership of the project will be structured utilizing a condo or air space parcel map structure to create separate legal parcels for each individual commercial space and the separate legal parcel for the residential portions of the project.

The development’s proposed unit amenities will include: heating / air conditioning, refrigerator, oven, dishwasher, garbage disposal, blinds, computer access, and cable television prewiring. Site amenities will include: a lobby / mail room, bicycle storage room, large common room with kitchen, managers’ offices and conference room, computer room, laundry room, and outdoor synthetic turf courtyards. The courtyards will include play areas with tot-lots with playhouses and climbing nets, tables and benches, and a barbecue area. Cuatro at City Heights will be four four-story, wood-frame buildings with exterior stucco and a concrete slab-on-grade foundation. The 117-unit development will consist of studio, one-, two- and three-bedroom units, along with associated common areas, parking and landscape improvements.

Cuatro at City Heights Preliminary Bond Authorization and TEFRA Hearing

The Property

The Cuatro at City Heights sites are north and south of El Cajon Boulevard, east of Interstate 805, west of Fairmont Avenue, and south of Adams Avenue. All four of the sites are in the City Heights Community Planning Area, near bus service, grocery stores, pharmacies and healthcare options.

Services

City Heights Community Development Corporation (CHCDC) will provide resident services for all tenants. CHCDC's mission is to enhance the quality of life in City Heights. Founded in 1981 by a small group of local residents, works in collaboration with neighborhood residents, focusing on improving the quality of life by focusing on social determinants of health, such as transit access, safe and walkable neighborhoods, and economic opportunities. As a place-based community development nonprofit, CHCDC is committed to advancing public infrastructure, small businesses, and policies that support low-income families. CHCDC will provide a full-time resident services coordinator at Cuatro at City Heights.

Through referral and advocacy, all residents will have assistance and access to a range of organized services free of charge. Tenant enrichment services include community activities, social events, celebrations and health and wellness classes. Case management services are one-on-one meetings designed to identify goals and meet the unique needs of families and individuals.

Supportive services for the 30 units set aside for veterans experiencing homelessness will be provided by Interfaith Community Services (Interfaith) and are included in the operating budget. Founded in 1979 as a direct response to the rising rates of hunger and homelessness in North San Diego County, Interfaith works to break the cycle of poverty and homelessness by "helping people help themselves."

Defined as a Service Provider by the Veterans Housing and Homeless Prevention (VHHP) program, Interfaith commits to provide and assess the need for the following services veteran clients. The local Veterans Affairs office will be providing in kind services to the 30 VHHP units. Services include: on-site case management and service coordination; Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) entry; and local Coordinated Entry System (CES) administration; benefits counseling; mental, primary and preventative health care; substance use treatment services; educational services; employment services; life skills training; peer support and advocacy; resources for legal services; social and recreational services; financial counseling; and transportation assistance.

Prevailing Wages

Cuatro at City Heights's proposed use of 48 U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Project-Based Housing Vouchers, which the Housing Commission administers, will require the development to pay federal prevailing wages. Since a reservation for state Multifamily Housing Program funds has been secured, state prevailing wages are also required. Wakeland will be subject to paying the higher prevailing wage rate (state).

Appraisal

An appraisal for each of the four subject sites with an effective date of February 10, 2023, valued the properties at a total of $11,845,000 assuming current market conditions. Assuming the proposed affordable housing restriction, the properties were appraised at $8,794,550. The appraisals were obtained by the developer and were conducted by The Dore Group.

Relocation

The subject property is vacant. No relocation is necessary.

Accessibility

CTCAC requires wheelchair accessibility in 10 percent of the units, and an additional 4 percent of the units are required to have communication features for residents with visual and/or hearing impairment. The same units can satisfy both accessibility requirements. The Cuatro at City Heights units will be accessible in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Project Sustainability

Cuatro at City Heights will be constructed in conformance with CTCAC minimum energy efficiency standards. The development’s features will include Energy Star-rated efficient appliances and a solar component for the common area’s electrical load. Water efficiency and conservation has been incorporated into the development’s design, including low-flow fixtures and drought-resistant landscaping. The development has been designated LEED Gold.

Development Team

During the tax credit compliance period, Cuatro at City Heights will be owned by Cuatro at City Heights LP, a California limited partnership (a single-asset limited partnership) consisting of Cuatro at City Heights LLC as the Managing General Partner, a to-be-selected Administrative General Partner, and a to-be-selected tax credit limited partner (Attachment 2 – Organization Chart).

The developer, Wakeland Housing and Development Corporation, is a nonprofit that develops and operates affordable and supportive housing. Since 1998, Wakeland has developed more than 7,800 affordable homes at 56 properties throughout California.

Property Management

Cuatro at City Heights will be managed by ConAm Management Corporation (ConAm). Established in 1975, ConAm is a nationwide management company, based in San Diego, with a management portfolio of approximately 53,000 units in more than 26 metropolitan areas. It is experienced in property management, marketing, maintenance, renovations and tax credit developments. ConAm manages 24 developments for Wakeland.

FINANCING STRUCTURE

Cuatro at City Heights has an estimated total development cost of $81,942,266 ($700,363/unit). This total development cost includes approximately $4 million of construction of commercial costs, which is not paid for by the residential sources and comes to a per unit cost of $34,290. When the commercial component is removed, the per unit cost of the residential portion decreases to $666,073.

Financing will include a combination of sources as described in Table 3. The developer’s pro forma is included as Attachment 3 and summarized below. No Housing Commission cash loan funds are proposed for Cuatro at City Heights.

Developer Fee

$3,500,000 - gross developer fee

- 1,300,000 - minus deferred developer’s fee

$ 2,200,000 - net cash developer’s fee

On April 25, 2017, the Housing Authority approved the “Request for Approval of Updated Developer Fees” (Report No. HAR17-011; Resolution No. HA-1727). That report approved certain developer fee guidelines for multifamily loans and bond issuances. Attachment 1 to that report stated: “Developer Fee [for] 4% tax credits, in project costs: 15% eligible basis....” The proposed developer’s fee complies with the HAR 17-011 “Request for Approval of Updated Developer Fees” guidelines approved by the Housing Authority on April 25, 2017.

Development Cost Key Performance Indicators

Housing Commission staff has identified development cost performance indicators, which were used to evaluate the proposed development. The key performance indicators listed in Table 4 are commonly used by real estate industry professionals and affordable housing developers.

Table 4 – Key Performance Indicators

Total Development Cost Per Unit	$81,942,266 ÷ 117 units =	$700,633
Affordable Residential Development Cost per Unit	$77,930,307 ÷ 117 units =	$666,073
Housing Commission Subsidy Per Unit	--	$0
Acquisition Cost Per Unit	$5,435,000 ÷ 117 units > =	$46,453
Gross Building Square Foot Hard Cost	$52,338,491 ÷ 132,958 sq. ft. =	$394 *
Net Rentable Square Foot Hard Cost	$52,338,491 ÷ 78,160 sq. ft. =	$670

*The total hard cost of $52,338,491 includes costs of residential and 2 commercial (cold shell only, approximately 15,000 sq ft) spaces.

When the commercial space is removed from the project’s total development cost, the cost per unit decreases to $666,071. The tax-exempt bonds proceeds will not be used to cover the commercial space. When consolidating the residential and commercial space, the total per unit cost is $700,633.

Project Comparison Chart

Multiple factors and variables influence the cost of developing multifamily affordable housing, including but not limited to project location, site conditions, environmental factors, land use approval process, community involvement, construction type, design requirements/constraints, economies of scale, City fees, developer experience and capacity, and the mission and goals of the organization developing the project. Similar construction-type developments (completed or approved) over recent years are listed in Table 5.

These developments are similar in terms of new construction, target population, and construction type and are provided as a comparison to the subject development.

Table 5 – Comparable Development Projects

New Construction Project Name	Year	Units	Total Development Cost	Cost Per Unit	HC Subsidy Per Unit	Gross Hard Cost Per Sq. Ft.
Proposed Subject – Cuatro at City Heights	2023	117	$81,942,266 (with prevailing wage, commercial component)	$700,633	$0	$394

Rancho Bernardo Transit Village	2022	100	$75,011,389 (with prevailing wage, commercial component)	$750,114	$0	$292
Ventana al Sur	2021	101	$57,337,762 (with prevailing wage, no commercial space)	$567,701	$43,564	$512

Cuatro at City Heights’ $700,631 development cost per unit is higher than is typical of multifamily rental housing because of various factors, including:

- Construction costs inflation has significantly increased in the past year due to market conditions that have increased the demand for construction materials at the national level, resulting in significant price increases.
- Escalation of interest rates (approximately 4 percent in past 10 months). In early 2022, interest rates were in the 3-4 percent range, and, most recently, they are now averaging between 6 and 7 percent.
- Necessary increase in the contingency budget to compensate for increasing interest and construction costs.
- Volatility in the insurance market has increased the insurance costs. Many of these increases can be attributed to insurance companies' payouts for wildfire damage in other parts of the state and the higher remediation and repair costs of flood damage in multifamily properties.
- Due to the mixed-use zoning, the Cuatro at City Heights’ design will include 15,000 square feet of commercial space. The costs associated with this portion of the development are not being paid for by tax-exempt bond proceeds and are for the shell/ structure only. All tenant improvements will be paid for by the tenants themselves at a later date.

TAX-EXEMPT MULTIFAMILY HOUSING REVENUE BONDS

The Housing Commission utilizes the Housing Authority’s tax-exempt borrowing status to pass on lower interest rate financing (and make 4 percent low-income housing tax credits available) to developers of affordable rental housing. The Housing Authority’s ability to issue bonds is limited under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. To issue bonds for a development, the Housing Authority must first submit an application to CDLAC for a bond allocation. Prior to submitting applications to CDLAC, developments are brought before the Housing Commission. Housing Commission bond inducement resolutions must be obtained prior to application submittal, and Housing Authority TEFRA resolutions must be secured by the time of project closing. These actions do not obligate the Housing Authority to issue bonds.

The Housing Commission Board of Commissioners is authorized to hold TEFRA hearings pursuant to Multifamily Mortgage Revenue Bond Program Policy Amendments the Housing Authority approved March 9, 2021 (Report No. HAR20-043; Resolution No. HA-1906).

The developer plans to submit a bond allocation application to CDLAC on May 23, 2023, for an August 23, 2023, bond allocation meeting (dates are subject to change at CDLAC’s discretion). However, if necessary, staff will submit additional applications to CDLAC to secure a bond allocation for the proposed development.

The developer will be seeking a CDLAC bond allocation of approximately $50,000,000 in tax-exempt Multifamily Housing Revenue Bonds. The developer proposes to have the Housing Authority issue the bonds through a tax-exempt private placement bond issuance. The bonds will meet all requirements of the Housing Commission’s Multifamily Housing Revenue Bond Program policy and will fully comply with the City of San Diego’s (City) ordinance on bond disclosure. The developer proposes that the bonds will be used to provide construction and permanent financing for the project. Housing Commission staff will later return to both the Housing Commission and Housing Authority for approval of the final bonds and transaction documents. A general description of the Multifamily Housing Revenue Bond Program and actions that must be taken by the Housing Authority and by the City Council to initiate and finalize proposed financings are described in Attachment 4.

Staff recommends assigning Squire Patten Boggs as Bond Counsel and Public Financial Management (PFM) as Bond Financial Advisor to work on the development. The proposed bond financing team members have been selected in accordance with the existing policy for the issuance of bonds. Financial Advisors and Bond Counsels are selected in accordance with the Housing Commission’s Bond Program Policy.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING IMPACT

Project-Based Vouchers (PBV)

The Housing Commission has provided a preliminary award recommendation of 48 PBVs for Cuatro at City Heights for households with incomes between 30 percent and 60 percent of AMI. The recommendation for these vouchers is contingent upon completion of a subsidy layering review, execution of an Agreement to Enter into Housing Assistance Payment, and verification of services. Under the PBV program, the tenant’s rent portion is determined by using the applicable minimum rent or a calculated amount based on their income level, whichever is higher, with the remainder being federally subsidized up to a gross rent level approved by the Housing Commission. The Housing Assistance Payment provides a rental subsidy for residents in Cuatro at City Heights’ 48 voucher-assisted units. The PBV units will be: 10 studio units, 11 one-bedroom units, 14 two-bedroom units and 13 three-bedroom units. The tenants will be selected from the Housing Commission’s PBV Wait List.

Affordability

The Cuatro at City Heights development will be subject to applicable tax credit and bond regulatory agreements, which will restrict affordability of 115 units for 55 years. The rent and occupancy restrictions required by the CTCAC will apply.

FISCAL CONSIDERATIONS

The funding sources and uses approved by this proposed action are included in the Fiscal Year (FY) 2023 Housing Commission Budget.

Funding sources approved by this action will be as follows:

Bond Issuer Fee: ($50,000,000 (Tax-exempt bonds) + $20,000,000 (Taxable bonds) X 0.0025 = $175,000

Total Funding Sources – up to $175,000

Funding uses approved by this action:

Administrative costs - $175,000

Total Funding Uses - up to $175,000

Housing Commission approval of the bond inducement and TEFRA resolutions does not commit the Housing Authority to issue the bonds. The bonds would not constitute a debt of the City. If bonds are ultimately issued for the development, the bonds will not financially obligate the City, the Housing Authority or the Housing Commission because security for the repayment of the bonds will be limited to specific private revenue sources of the development. Neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the City or the Housing Authority would be pledged to the payment of the bonds. The developer is responsible for the payment of all costs under the financing, including the Housing Commission annual administrative fee, as well as Housing Commission Bond Council and Financial Advisor fees.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY CONTRACTING AND EQUITY ASSURANCE

Wakeland reported that it is committed to advancing equity and inclusion throughout the development and operation of the project. The Housing Commission included a requirement for prospective applicants for Multifamily Housing Revenue Bonds to include a narrative and specific example of activities and initiatives that support equity assurance. Wakeland demonstrates a commitment to this effort by continuing to use the Global Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Benchmarks assessment checklist to assess current racial equity and inclusion (REI) efforts and ensure that REI policies, initiatives, and practices are intentionally imbedded in all that they do.

HOUSING COMMISSION STRATEGIC PLAN

This item relates to Strategic Priority Area No. 1 in the Housing Commission Strategic Plan for Fiscal Year (FY) 2022-2024: Increasing and Preserving Housing Solutions.

COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION and PUBLIC OUTREACH EFFORTS

On November 5, 2018, Wakeland Housing and Development Corporation presented the proposed development as an action item to the City Heights Area Planning Committee. The community-planning group voted 11-4-1 to approve the motion supporting the project.

KEY STAKEHOLDERS and PROJECTED IMPACTS

Cuatro at City Heights is anticipated to have a positive impact on the community, as it will contribute to the quality of the surrounding neighborhood and create 115 new affordable rental homes for low-income individuals and families, including veterans experiencing homelessness.

ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW

This activity is not a “project” and is therefore not subject to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) pursuant to State CEQA Guidelines Section 15060(c)(3). This determination is predicated on Section 15004 of the Guidelines, which provides direction to lead agencies on the appropriate timing for environmental review. This action does not constitute approval of a project. Approval will occur once the environmental review has been completed in accordance with CEQA Section 15004. This action will not foreclose review of alternatives or mitigation measures by the public as part of the CEQA process. The proposed actions are approval of preliminary steps to issue Bonds and do not constitute approval of the development activity or authorization for the issuance of Bonds. Future actions to consider and approve development entitlement approvals related to the future development of the site will require additional review under the provisions of CEQA by the lead agency. The parties agree that the provision of any federal funds as the result of this action is conditioned on the City of San Diego’s final NEPA review and approval.

HOUSING COMMISSION MULTIFAMILY
HOUSING REVENUE BOND PROGRAM SUMMARY

General Description: The multifamily housing bond program provides below-market financing (based on bond interest being exempt from income tax) for developers willing to set aside a percentage of project units as affordable housing. Multifamily housing revenue bonds are also known as "private activity bonds" because the projects are owned by private entities, often including nonprofit sponsors and for-profit investors.

Bond Issuer: Housing Authority of the City of San Diego. There is no direct legal liability to the City, the Housing Authority or the Housing Commission in connection with the issuance or repayment of bonds. There is no pledge of the City's faith, credit or taxing power nor of the Housing Authority's faith and credit. The bonds do not constitute a general obligation of the issuer because security for repayment of the bonds is limited to specific private revenue sources, such as project revenues. The developer is responsible for the payment of costs of issuance and all other costs under each financing.

Affordability: Minimum requirement is that at least 20% of the units are affordable at 50% of Area Median Income (AMI). Alternatively, a minimum of the units may be affordable at 50% AMI with an additional 30% of the units affordable at 60% AMI. The Housing Commission requires that the affordability restriction be in place for a minimum of 15 years. Due to the combined requirements of state, local, and federal funding sources, projects financed under the Bond Program are normally affordable for 30-55 years and often provide deeper affordability levels than the minimum levels required under the Bond Program.

Rating: Generally "AAA" or its equivalent with a minimum rating of "A" or, under conditions that meet IRS and Housing Commission requirements, bonds may be unrated for private placement with institutional investors (typically, large banks). Additional security is normally achieved through the provision of outside credit support ("credit enhancement") by participating financial institutions that underwrite the project loans and guarantee the repayment of the bonds. The credit rating on the bonds reflects the credit quality of the credit enhancement provider.

Approval Process:

- Inducement Resolution: The bond process is initiated when the San Diego Housing Commission (Housing Commission) adopts an "Inducement Resolution" to establish the date from which project costs may be reimbursable from bond proceeds (if bonds are later issued) and to authorize staff to work with the financing team to perform a due diligence process. The Inducement Resolution does not represent any commitment by the Housing Commission, or the Housing Authority, or the developer to proceed with the financing.

- TEFRA Hearing and Resolution (Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982): to assure that projects making use of tax-exempt financing meet appropriate governmental purposes and provide reasonable public benefits, the IRS Code requires that a public hearing be held and that the issuance of bonds be approved by representatives of the governmental unit with jurisdiction over the area in which the project is located. This process does not make the Housing Commission, the Housing Authority, or the City of San Diego financially or legally liable for the bonds or for the project.

[Note: Members of the Housing Commission or the San Diego City Council may be asked to take two actions at this stage in the bond process -- one in their capacity as approving the TEFRA hearing resolution and another as approving the bond inducement.]

- Application for Bond Allocation: The issuance of these "private activity bonds" (bonds for projects owned by private developers, including projects with nonprofit sponsors and for-profit investors) requires an allocation of bond issuing authority from the State of California. To apply for an allocation, an application approved by the Housing Commission and supported by an adopted inducement resolution and by proof of credit enhancement (or bond rating) must be filed with the California Debt Limit Allocation Committee (CDLAC). In addition, evidence of a TEFRA hearing and approval must be submitted prior to the CDLAC meeting.
- Final Bond Approval: The Housing Authority retains absolute discretion over the issuance of bonds through adoption of a final resolution authorizing the issuance. Prior to final consideration of the proposed bond issuance, the project must comply with all applicable financing, affordability, and legal requirements and undergo all required planning procedures/reviews by local planning groups, etc.
- Funding and Bond Administration: All monies are held and accounted for by a third party trustee. The trustee disburses proceeds from bond sales to the developer in order to acquire and/or construct the housing project. Rental income used to make bond payments is collected from the developer by the trustee and disbursed to bond holders, if rents are insufficient to make bond payments, the trustee obtains funds from the credit enhancement provider. No monies are transferred through the Housing Commission or Housing Authority, and the trustee has no standing to ask the issuer for funds. Bond Disclosure: The offering document (typically a Preliminary Offering Statement or bond placement memorandum) discloses relevant information regarding the project, the developer, and the credit enhancement provider. Since the Housing Authority is not responsible in any way for bond repayment, there are no financial statements or summaries about the Housing Authority or the City that are included as part of the offering document. The offering document includes a paragraph that states that the Housing Authority is a legal entity with the authority to issue multifamily housing bonds and that the Housing Commission acts on behalf of the Housing Authority to issue the bonds. The offering document also includes a paragraph that details that there is no pending or threatened litigation that would affect the validity of the bonds or curtail the ability of the Housing Authority to issue bonds. This is the extent of the disclosure required of the Housing Authority, Housing Commission, or the City. However, it is the obligation of members of the Housing Authority to disclose any material facts known about the project, not available to the general public, which might have an impact on the viability of the project.

ARTICLE III - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers. Subject to any limitations in the articles of incorporation, these bylaws and the laws of the State of California, all powers of the Corporation shall be exercised by or under authority of, its property controlled and its affairs conducted and managed by, a Board of Directors. The primary function of the Board of Directors shall be to establish corporate policies for the direction and guidance of the Executive Committee, if any, the officers, and the management of the Corporation, and to formulate the basic rules and regulations governing the operation and management of the Corporation. Without limiting the foregoing, the Board shall also have the following powers:

(a) To select and remove any and all officers, agents and employees of the Corporation, prescribe such powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with the

California Nonprofit Corporation Law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service;

(b) To conduct, manage and control the affairs and business of the Corporation, and to make such rules and regulations therefor not inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws, as they may deem best;

(c) To borrow money and incur indebtedness for the purposes of the Corporation and to cause to be executed and delivered therefor in the Corporation's name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations or other evidences of debt and securities therefor;

(d) To appoint an Executive Committee and other committees, and to delegate any of the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, subject to the limitations set forth in Section 6 of Article V of these bylaws.

Section 2. Number of Directors. The number of Directors shall be not less than one (1) nor more than ten (10) with the exact number of Directors set by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, unless and until changed by amendment of the articles of incorporation, or by amendment of this Section 2.

Section 3. Classification, Term of Office and Election of Directors.

(a) The authorized Directors may be divided into three groups as nearly equal in number as possible, designated as Group I, Group II and Group III as follows:

(i) Group I shall consist of Directors having an initial term of office of one (1) year;

(ii) Group II shall consist of Directors having an initial term of office of two (2) years; and

(iii) Group III shall consist of Directors having an initial term of office of three years.

(b) The Directors in each group shall hold office until their respective initial terms have expired. Thereafter, each year the Directors shall elect a number of Directors equal to the number of Directors whose terms have expired, for a full term of three (3) years. Each Director shall serve for a term of three (3) years from the date of expiration of the term of the Director to whose office he or she succeeds or until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Sections 4 or 18 of this Article III, whichever first occurs. Any Director elected to succeed a Director who leaves or is removed from office for any reason prior to expiration of his or her term shall serve the balance of that term. Directors may be elected at any regular or special meeting of the Directors duly called and held. Directors may serve an unlimited number of successive terms.

Section 4. Vacancies.

(a) All vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled by a majority of the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director. Each Director so elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the predecessor's unexpired term and until the election of a successor as set forth in Section 3 of this Article III.

(b) If the Board of Directors accepts the resignation of a Director tendered to take effect at a future time, the Board of Directors shall have the power to elect a successor to take office when the resignation shall become effective.

(c) No reduction in the number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director prior to the expiration of his or her term of office.

(d) A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist on the death, resignation or removal of any Director; upon the failure of any Director to attend at least fifty percent (50%) of the regular Board meetings in any one year (between annual organizational meetings of the Board); upon any Director's unexcused absence from three (3) consecutive regular Board meetings; whenever the fixed number of Directors is increased; upon the expiration of the term of office of any Director; or upon the failure of the Directors, at any regular or special meeting at which any Director or Directors are elected, to elect the full number of Directors to be voted for at that meeting.

Section 5. Annual Organization Meeting. The annual organization meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held in the month of January of each year for the purpose of organization, appointment of officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 6. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least annually on such dates and at such times as shall be determined by the Board.

Section 7. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes shall be called at any time by the President, the Chairperson of the Board, the Secretary or any two Directors of the Corporation. The party calling such special meeting shall determine the date and time thereof.

Section 8. Place of Meeting. All meetings of the Directors shall be held at the office of the Corporation in the State of California or at such other place as may be designated for that purpose from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Notice of Meetings. Notice of the date, time and place of meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given to each Director at least forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting if delivered personally or by telephone, including a voice messaging system or other system or technology designed to record and communicate messages, telegraph, facsimile, electronic mail, or other electronic means, and at least four (4) days before the date of the meeting if given by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the Director at the address as it is shown upon the records of the Corporation, or if it is not so shown on such records, or is not readily ascertainable, at the place in which the meetings of the Directors are regularly held. Whenever any Director has been absent from any meeting of the Board of Directors, an entry in the minutes to the effect that notice has been duly given shall be conclusive and incontrovertible evidence that due notice of such meeting was given to such Director as required by the California Nonprofit Corporation Law and these bylaws. Notice of special meetings shall specify the nature of the business to be transacted. No items of business other than those specified in the notice of a special meeting may be transacted at a special meeting.

Section 10. Consent to Meetings; Waiver of Notice. The transaction of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed and wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice if a quorum is present, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the Directors entitled to vote, not present in person, signs a written waiver of notice, or a consent to the holding of such meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any Director who attends the meeting without protesting prior to or at the commencement of the meeting, the lack of notice to such Director.

Section 11. Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Directors a majority of the number of Directors then in office shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business except to adjourn as provided in Section 16 of this Article III. The act of a majority of the Directors present at any time at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless a greater number is required by these bylaws or by law. Notwithstanding the previous provisions of this Section 11, a meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

Section 12. Conduct of Meetings. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors, or, in his or her absence, the Vice Chairperson, or, in his or her absence, any other person chosen by a majority of the Directors present shall be chairman of and shall preside over the meetings of the Board of Directors. The Secretary of the Corporation shall act as the secretary of all meetings, provided that in his or her absence, the Chairperson shall appoint another person to act as secretary of the meetings. The meetings shall be governed as the Directors shall agree; in the absence of such agreement, Robert's Rules of Order, as may be amended from time to time, shall govern the meetings insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with these bylaws, the articles of incorporation, or the law.

Section 13. Proxy Voting Prohibited. Voting by proxy shall not be permitted.

Section 14. Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of such Directors. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors.

Section 15. Participation in Meetings by Conference Telephone. Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all members participating in such meetings can hear one another.

Section 16. Adjournment. A majority of the Directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any Directors' meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent Directors unless the original meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours. The time and place of the adjourned meeting shall be fixed at the meeting adjourned, except as provided in the next sentence. If the original meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, notice of any adjournment to another time and place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the Directors who were not present at the time of adjournment.

Section 17. Rights of Inspection. Every Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records and documents of every kind except any records whose confidentiality and prohibition from disclosure is prescribed by law.

Section 18. Removal of Directors; Resignation. A Director or Directors may be removed from office by a vote of the majority of the Board at any Board meeting, with or without cause. Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice of such resignation to the Board, unless there would be no Director left in charge of the Corporation's affairs upon resignation by said Director, in which case said Director must first give notice to the Attorney General for the State of California of the intended resignation. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 19. Fees and Compensation. Directors and members of committees may receive such compensation, if any, for their services, and such reimbursement for expenses, as may be fixed or determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 20. Freedom from Liability. No Director of this Corporation shall be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the Corporation.

Section 21. Interested Persons. Pursuant to Section 5227 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, no more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the Directors serving on the Board may be "interested persons." For the purposes of this Section 21, "interested person" means either (i) any person currently being compensated by the Corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve (12) months whether as a full time or part time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a Director as Director; or (ii) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law of any such person. In light of the foregoing limitations, all Directors shall fill out an annual questionnaire dealing with this subject matter.

Section 22. Standard of Conduct. Pursuant to Section 5231 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, a Director shall perform the duties of a Director, including duties as a member of any committee of the Board upon which the Director may serve, in good faith, in a manner such Director believes to be in the best interests of the Corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinary prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. In performing the duties of a Director, a Director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

(a) One or more officers or employees of the Corporation whom the Director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) Counsel, independent accountants or other persons as to matters which the Director believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) A committee of the Board upon which the Director does not serve, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the Director believes to merit confidence, so long as, in any such case, the Director acts in good faith, after reasonable inquiry when the need therefor is indicated by the circumstances and without knowledge that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted.

Section 23. Self-Dealing Transactions. Pursuant to Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, the Corporation shall not be a party to a transaction in which one or more of its Directors has a material financial interest ("Interested Director") unless:

(a) The Attorney General, or the court in an action in which the Attorney General is an indispensable party, has approved the transaction before or after it was consummated; or

(b) Prior to entering into the transaction, after full disclosure to the Board of all material facts regarding the proposed transaction and the Interested Director's interest, and after investigation and report to the Board as to alternative arrangements for the proposed transaction, if any, the Board in good faith and by a vote of a majority of the Directors then in office (without including the vote of the Interested Director):

(1) Resolves and finds that (i) the transaction is in the Corporation's best interest and for the Corporation's own benefit, (ii) the transaction is fair and reasonable as to the Corporation, and (iii) after reasonable investigation under the circumstances as to alternatives, the Corporation could not have obtained a more advantageous arrangement with reasonable efforts under the circumstances; and

(2) Approves the entire transaction. In the event it is not reasonably practicable to obtain approval of the Board prior to entering into such transaction, the Corporation may enter into such transaction if, prior to entering into said transaction, a committee or person authorized by the Board approves the transaction in a manner consistent with the procedure set forth in this section and the Board, after determining in good faith that the Corporation entered into the transaction for its own benefit and that the transaction was fair and reasonable as to the Corporation at the time it was entered into, ratifies the transaction at its next meeting by a vote of the majority of the Directors then in office, without counting the vote of the Interested Director. In light of the foregoing limitations, all Directors shall fill out an annual questionnaire dealing with this subject matter.

All or part of the above duties may be delegated to staff of the Corporation, with ultimate responsibility remaining with the President.

ARTICLE VI - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Voting Shares. The Corporation may vote any and all shares held by it in any other corporation by such officer, agent or proxy as the Board of Directors may appoint, or in the absence of any such appointment, by the Chairperson of the Board or by any other officer, if also a Director and, in such case, such officers or any of them, may likewise appoint a proxy to vote said shares.

Section 2. Checks, Drafts, Etc. All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidence of indebtedness issued in the name of or payable to the Corporation and any and all securities owned or held by the Corporation requiring signature for the transfer shall be signed or endorsed by such person or persons and in such manner as from time to time shall be determined by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee, if any.

Section 3. Endorsement of Documents; Contracts. Subject to the provisions of applicable laws, any note, mortgage, evidence of indebtedness, contract, conveyance or other instrument in writing, and any assignment or endorsement thereof, executed or entered into between the Corporation and any other person, when signed by any officer, shall be valid and binding on the Corporation in the absence of actual knowledge on the part of the other person that the signing officer(s) had no authority to execute the same. Any such instruments may be signed by any other person or persons and in such manner as from time to time shall be determined by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee, and, unless so authorized by the Board of Directors, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or amount.

Section 4. Annual Report. The Chief Financial Officer shall cause an annual report to be prepared and sent to each Director, including ex-officio directors, and officers of the Corporation, and such other persons as are designated by the Board of Directors no later than 120 days after the close of the fiscal or calendar year. Such annual report shall be prepared in conformity with the requirements of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law now in effect and as it may hereafter be amended.

Section 5. Construction and Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the general provisions, rules of construction and definitions contained in the general provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law and in the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law shall govern the construction of these bylaws.

Section 6. Gender. As used in these bylaws, the masculine gender shall include both the masculine and the feminine gender.

ARTICLE VII - INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this Article VII, "agent" means any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the Corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation; and "proceeding" means any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative; and "expenses" includes, without limitation, attorneys' fees and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification under Sections 4 or 5(b) of this Article VII.

Section 2. Indemnification in Actions by Third Parties. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, an action brought under Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, or an action brought by the Attorney General or a person granted relator status by the Attorney General for any breach of duty relating to assets held in charitable trust) by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 3. Indemnification in Actions by or in the Right of the Corporation. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the Corporation, or brought under Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, or brought by the Attorney General or a person granted relator status by the Attorney General for breach of duty relating to assets held in charitable trust, to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action if such person acted in good faith, in a manner such person believed to be in the best interest of the Corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. No indemnification shall be made under this Section 3:

(a) In respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation in the performance of such person's duty to the Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which such court shall determine;

(b) Of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a threatened or pending action, with or without court approval; or

(c) Of expenses incurred in defending a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval, unless it is settled with the approval of the Attorney General.

Section 4. Indemnification Against Expenses. To the extent that an agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to in Section 2 or 3 of this Article VII or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

Section 5. Required Determinations. Except as provided in Section 4 of this Article VII any indemnification under this Article VII shall be made by the Corporation only if authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 2 or 3 of this Article VII, by:

(a) A majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such proceeding; or

(b) The court in which such proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the Corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not such application by the agent, attorney or other person is opposed by the Corporation.

Section 6. Advance of Expenses. Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the Corporation prior to the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay such amount unless it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Article VII.

Section 7. Other Indemnification. No provision made by the Corporation to indemnify its or its subsidiary's directors or officers for the defense of any proceeding, whether contained in the articles of incorporation, bylaws, a resolution of the directors, an agreement or otherwise, shall be valid unless consistent with this Article VII. Nothing contained in this Article VII shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than such directors and officers may be entitled by contract or otherwise. The Corporation shall have the power to indemnify, to advance expenses to, or to procure insurance for any person, who is an agent of the Corporation as long as such actions are consistent with this Article VII and comply with the California Nonprofit Corporation Law.

Section 8. Forms of Indemnification not Permitted. No indemnification or advance shall be made under this Article VII, except as provided in Sections 4 or 5(b), in any circumstances where it appears:

(a) That it would be inconsistent with a provision of the articles of incorporation, these bylaws or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or

(b) That it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

Section 9. Insurance. The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the Corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of this Article VII, provided, however, that the Corporation shall have no power to purchase and maintain such insurance to indemnify any agent of the Corporation for a violation of Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

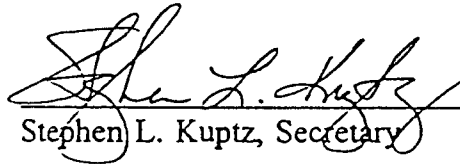

Section 10. Nonapplicability to Fiduciaries of Employee Benefit Plans. This Article VII does not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan in such person's capacity as such, even though such person may also be an agent of the Corporation as defined in Section 1 of this Article VII. The Corporation shall have power to indemnify such trustee, investment manager or other fiduciary to the extent permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 207 of the California General Corporation Law.

ARTICLE VIII - AMENDMENT

These bylaws and any part thereof may be amended and repealed and new bylaws may be adopted only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the number of Directors of the Corporation then in office.

AMENDED AND RESTATED
BYLAWS OF
WAKELAND HOUSING AND DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

ARTICLE I - PURPOSE AND OFFICE

Section 1. Objects and Purposes. Wakeland Housing and Development Corporation (the “Corporation”) has been formed under the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law to contribute to the general welfare of society by providing low and moderate income persons, elderly persons and disabled persons with affordable housing by acquiring and/or developing low and moderate income housing and providing ancillary economic development activities. The Corporation and all of its businesses and other activities are to be operated and conducted in the promotion of its charitable objects and purposes as specified in its articles of incorporation, and in the conduct of its affairs the management shall at all times be mindful of these charitable objects and purposes. In the event that any provision of this Section 1 is inconsistent with any provision of the articles of incorporation of the Corporation, the provisions of the articles of incorporation of the Corporation shall prevail and be controlling.

Section 2. Principal Office. The principal office of the Corporation shall be located at 1230 Columbia Street, Suite 950, San Diego, in San Diego County, California. The Board of Directors (“Board”) of the Corporation is hereby granted full authority and power to change the principal office from place to place as it is deemed necessary. Any such change of location may be noted in the bylaws by the Secretary opposite this Section 2 or this Section may be amended to state the new location.

Section 3. Other Offices. The Board may at any time establish branch offices at any place or places where the Corporation is qualified to conduct its activities in order to advance the proper purposes of the Corporation.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members. There shall be no Members of the Corporation within the meaning of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law. Any action which would otherwise require approval by a majority of all Members or approval by the Members shall require only approval by the Board of Directors. All rights which would otherwise vest in the Members shall vest in the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Honorary Members. The Board of Directors may, by appropriate resolution, from time to time define and establish honorary members, auxiliaries, friends, and other support groups for the Corporation. None of such honorary members, auxiliaries, friends or groups, or the constituents thereof, shall be or have the rights and privileges of "Members" within the meaning of Section 5056 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law with respect to the Corporation.

ARTICLE III - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers. Subject to any limitations in the articles of incorporation, these bylaws and the laws of the State of California, all powers of the Corporation shall be exercised by or under authority of, its property controlled and its affairs conducted and managed by, a Board of Directors. The primary function of the Board of Directors shall be to establish corporate policies for the direction and guidance of the Executive Committee, if any, the officers, and the management of the Corporation, and to formulate the basic rules and regulations governing the operation and management of the Corporation. Without limiting the foregoing, the Board shall also have the following powers:

(a) To select and remove any and all officers, agents and employees of the Corporation, prescribe such powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service;

(b) To conduct, manage and control the affairs and business of the Corporation, and to make such rules and regulations therefor not inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws, as they may deem best;

(c) To borrow money and incur indebtedness for the purposes of the Corporation and to cause to be executed and delivered therefor in the Corporation's name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations or other evidences of debt and securities therefor;

(d) To appoint an Executive Committee and other committees, and to delegate any of the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, subject to the limitations set forth in Section 6 of Article V of these bylaws.

Section 2. Number of Directors. The number of Directors shall be not less than three (3) nor more than eighteen (18) with the exact number of Directors to be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors of the Corporation , unless and until changed by amendment of the articles of incorporation, or by amendment of this Section 2.

Section 3. Classification, Term of Office and Election of Directors.

(a) The authorized Directors may be divided into three groups as nearly equal in number as possible, designated as Group I, Group II and Group III as follows:

(i) Group I shall consist of Directors having an initial term of office of one (1) year;

(ii) Group II shall consist of Directors having an initial term of office of two (2) years; and

(iii) Group III shall consist of Directors having an initial term of office of three years.

(b) The Directors in each group shall hold office until their respective initial terms have expired. Thereafter, each year the Directors shall elect a number of Directors equal to the number of Directors whose terms have expired, for a full term of three (3) years. Each Director shall serve for a term of three (3) years from the date of expiration of the term of the Director to whose office he or she succeeds or until the occurrence of one of the events specified in Sections 4 or 18 of this Article III, whichever first occurs. Any Director elected to succeed a Director who leaves or is removed from office for any reason prior to expiration of his or her term shall serve the balance of that term. Directors may be elected at any regular or special meeting of the Directors duly called and held. Directors may serve an unlimited number of successive terms.

Section 4. Vacancies.

(a) All vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled by a majority of the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director. Each

Director so elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the predecessor's unexpired term and until the election of a successor as set forth in Section 3 of this Article III.

(b) If the Board of Directors accepts the resignation of a Director tendered to take effect at a future time, the Board of Directors shall have the power to elect a successor to take office when the resignation shall become effective.

(c) No reduction in the number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director prior to the expiration of his or her term of office.

(d) A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist on the death, resignation or removal of any Director, upon the failure of any Director to attend at least fifty percent (50%) of the regular Board meetings in any one year (between annual organizational meetings of the Board); upon any Director's unexcused absence from three (3) consecutive regular Board meetings; whenever the fixed number of Directors is increased; upon the expiration of the term of office of any Director; or upon the failure of the Directors, at any regular or special meeting at which any Director or Directors are elected, to elect the full number of Directors to be voted for at that meeting.

Section 5. Annual Organization Meeting. The annual organization meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held in the month of January of each year for the purpose of organization, election or appointment of officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 6. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least annually on such dates and at such times as shall be determined by the Board.

Section 7. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the President, the Chairperson of the Board, the Secretary or any two Directors of the Corporation. The party calling such special meeting shall determine the date and time thereof.

Section 8. Place of Meeting. All meetings of the Directors shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation in the State of California or at such other place as may be designated for that purpose from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Notice of Meetings. Notice of the date, time and place of meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given to each Director at least forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting if delivered personally or by telephone, including a voice messaging system or other system or technology designed to record and communicate messages, telegraph, facsimile, electronic mail, or other electronic means, and at least four (4) days before the date of the meeting if given by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the Director at the address as it is shown upon the records of the Corporation, or if it is not so shown on such records, or is not readily ascertainable, at the place in which the meetings of the Directors are regularly held provided that such notice may be waived by any Director as set forth in Section 10 of this Article III. Whenever any Director has been absent from any meeting of the Board of Directors, an entry in the minutes to the effect that notice has been duly given shall be conclusive and incontrovertible evidence that due notice of such meeting was given to such Director as required by the California Nonprofit Corporation Law and these bylaws. Notice of special meetings shall specify the nature of the business to be transacted. No items of business other than those specified in the notice of a special meeting may be transacted at a special meeting.

Section 10. Consent to Meetings; Waiver of Notice. The transaction of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed and however held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice: (a) if a quorum is present; and (b) if, either before or after the meeting, each of the Directors entitled to vote, not present in person, signs a written waiver of notice, or a consent to the holding of such meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. Such written waiver of notice or consent to the holding of such meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof may be in the form of an email or other electronic communication capable of reproduction. The waiver of notice or consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any Director who attends the meeting without protesting prior to or at the commencement of the meeting, the lack of notice to such Director.

Section 11. Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Directors a majority of the number of Directors then in office shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business except to adjourn as provided in Section 16 of this Article III. The act of a majority of the Directors present at any time at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless a greater number is required by these bylaws or by law. Notwithstanding the previous provisions of this Section 11, a meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

Section 12. Conduct of Meetings. The President, or, in his or her absence, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, or, in his or her absence, any other person chosen by a majority of the Directors present shall be chairperson of and shall preside over the meetings of the Board of Directors. The Secretary of the Corporation shall act as the secretary of all meetings, provided that in his or her absence, the Chairperson shall appoint another person to act as secretary of the meetings. The meetings shall be governed as the Directors shall agree; in the absence of such agreement, Robert's Rules of Order, as may be amended from time to time, shall govern the meetings insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with these bylaws, the articles of incorporation, or the law.

Section 13. Proxy Voting Prohibited. Voting by proxy shall not be permitted.

Section 14. Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting and prior notice, if all members of the Board consent in writing or by electronic communication to that action. Such action by written consent or electronic communication shall have the same force and effect as any other validly approved action of the Board. Such written consent or consents or copies of any electronic communication shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. An electronic transmission consent to action to be taken shall be deemed to be written, signed and dated for purposes of this Section, provided that any such electronic transmission is delivered with information from which the Board can determine (i) that the electronic transmission was transmitted by the director and (ii) the date on which such director transmitted the electronic transmission. The date on which such electronic transmission was transmitted shall be deemed to be date on which such consent was signed. For the purposes of this Section 14 only, "all members of the Board" shall not include directors who have a material financial interest in a transaction to which to Corporation is a party.

Section 15. Participation In Meetings by Communications Equipment. Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone, electronic video screen communication, or similar communications equipment, so long as all members participating in such meetings can hear one another. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this bylaw shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 16. Adjournment. A majority of the Directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any Directors' meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent Directors unless the original meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours. The time and place of the adjourned meeting that be fixed at the meeting adjourned, except as provided in the next sentence. If the original meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, notice of any adjournment to another time and place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the Directors who were not present at the time of adjournment. This notice may be waived in the same manner as set forth in Section 10 of this Article III.

Section 17. Rights of Inspection. Every Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records and documents of every kind except any records where confidentiality and prohibition from disclosure is prescribed by law.

Section 18. Removal of Directors; Resignation. A Director or Directors may be removed from office by a vote of the majority of the Board at any Board meeting, with or without cause. Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice of such resignation to the Board, unless there would be no Director left in charge of the Corporation's affairs upon resignation by said Director, in the case said Director must first give notice to the Attorney General for the State of California of the intended resignation. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 19. Fees and Compensation. Directors and members of committees may receive such compensation, if any, for their services, and such reimbursement for expenses, as may be fixed or determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 20. Freedom from Liability. No Director of this Corporation shall be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the Corporation.

Section 21. Interested Persons. Pursuant to Section 5227 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, no more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the Directors serving on the Board may be “interested persons.” For the purposes of this Section 21, “interested person” means either (i) any person currently being compensated by the Corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve (12) months whether as a full time or part time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a Director as Director; or (ii) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law of any such person. In light of the foregoing limitations, all Directors shall fill out an annual questionnaire dealing with this subject matter.

Section 22. Standard of Conduct. Pursuant to Section 5231 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, a Director shall perform the duties of a Director, including duties as a member of any committee of the Board upon which the Director may serve, in good faith, in a manner such Director believes to be in the best interests of the Corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinary prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. In performing the duties of a Director, a Director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

(a) One or more officers or employees of the Corporation whom the Director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) Counsel, independent accountants or other persons as to matters which the Director believes to be within such person’s professional or expert competence; or

(c) A committee of the Board upon which the Director does not serve, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the Director believes to merit confidence, so long as, in any such case, the Director acts in good faith, after reasonable inquiry when the need therefor is indicated by the circumstances and without knowledge that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted.

Section 23. Self-Dealing Transactions. Pursuant to Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, the Corporation shall not be a party to a transaction in which one or more of its Directors has a material financial interest (“Interested Director”) unless:

(a) The Attorney General, or the court in an action in which the Attorney General is an indispensable party, has approved the transaction before or after it was consummated; or

(b) Prior to entering into the transaction, after full disclosure to the Board of all material facts regarding the proposed transaction and the Interested Director’s interest, and after investigation and report to the Board as to alternative arrangements for the proposed transaction, if any, the Board in good faith and by a vote of a majority of the Directors then in office (without including the vote of the Interested Director):

(1) Resolves and finds that (i) the transaction is in the Corporation’s best interest and for the Corporation’s own benefit, (ii) the transaction is fair and reasonable as to the Corporation, and (iii) after reasonable investigation under the circumstances as to alternatives, the Corporation could not have obtained a more advantageous arrangement with reasonable efforts under the circumstances; and

(2) Approves the entire transaction. In the event it is not reasonably practicable to obtain approval of the Board prior to entering into such transaction, the Corporation may enter into such transaction if, prior to entering into said transaction, a committee or person authorized by the Board approves the transaction in a manner consistent with the procedure set forth in this section and the Board, after determining in good faith that the Corporation entered into the transaction for its own benefit and that the transaction was fair and reasonable as to the Corporation at the time it was entered into, ratifies the transaction at its next meeting by a vote of the majority of the Directors then in office, without counting the vote of the Interested Director. In light of the foregoing limitations, all Directors shall fill out an annual questionnaire dealing with this subject matter.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the Corporation shall be a Chairperson of the Board or a President (who may also be referred to as the Chief Executive Officer) or both, a Secretary, a Chief Financial Officer or a Treasurer, or both, and any other officers with such titles as the Board of Directors may appoint from time to time, including, but not limited to, a Vice President, assistant officers, assistant secretaries, additional vice presidents, an Executive Director and a Vice Chairperson of the Board. All officers shall be chosen by, and hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors, subject to the rights, if any, of any officer under any contract of employment. One person may hold two offices, except that neither the Secretary, the Treasurer nor the Chief Financial Officer may serve concurrently as the President or Chairperson of the Board. Compensation for officers and reimbursement of their expenses shall be as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Election or Appointment of Officers. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen annually by the Board of Directors to serve one term of office, and each shall hold office until his or her successor shall be appointed and qualified to serve, or until he or she shall

A term of office shall consist of one year. The Board shall appoint such temporary or acting officers as may be necessary during the temporary absence or disability of regular officers.

Section 3. Subordinate Officers. The Board of Directors may elect or authorize the appointment of such officers other than those hereinafore mentioned as the business of the Corporation may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as are provided in these bylaws, or as the Board of Directors may from time to time authorize or determine.

Section 4. Chairperson of the Board. The Chairperson of the Board, if present, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee in the absence of the President, appoint the chairpersons of all committees, serve as an ex-officio member of all committees, and exercise and perform such other powers and duties as may from time to time be assigned by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Vice Chairperson of the Board. In the absence or disability of the Chairperson of the Board, the Vice Chairperson of the Board, if appointed, shall perform all of the duties of the Chairperson of the Board, and when so acting shall have all of the powers of, and be subject to all of the restrictions upon, the Chairperson of the Board. The Vice Chairperson of the Board shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed for the Vice Chairperson by the Board of Directors or the bylaws.

Section 6. President/Chief Executive Officer; Vice President. The President, who may also be referred to as the Chief Executive Officer, shall be employed by the Corporation to administer its affairs and have general supervision, direction and control of the business and

He or she shall have the general powers and duties of management usually vested in the office of President of a corporation, and shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or these bylaws. The President's specific responsibilities shall include general management, general direction of the programs of the Corporation, fund raising, whether for capital, endowment or current purposes, budget preparation and control, accounting and reporting of financial transactions, management and supervision of personnel, and development of public relations. The President shall report to the Directors, and his or her salary shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. The President shall have the responsibility of selecting and dismissing the employees of the Corporation in accordance with current personnel policies of the Corporation. If the Corporation has more than one Vice President, the President shall have the authority to designate the order in which they shall serve in place of and instead of the President in his or her absence. The Vice President, if any, acting in the President's absence shall have all of the powers and duties of the President. All or part of the above duties may be delegated to staff of the Corporation, with ultimate responsibility remaining with the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep or cause to be kept at the principal office of the corporation in the State of California, the original or a copy of the Corporation's articles of incorporation and bylaws, as amended to date. The Secretary also shall keep or cause to be kept a book of minutes at the principal office, or at such other place as the Board of Directors may order, of all meetings of the Directors, with the time and place of holding, whether regular or special; and if special, how authorized, the notice thereof given, the names of those present at Directors' meetings, and the proceedings thereof. The Secretary shall give or cause to be given notice of all the meetings of the Board of Directors required by these bylaws or by law to be given and he or she shall keep the seal and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors and by these bylaws. All or part of the above duties may be delegated to staff of the Corporation, with ultimate responsibility remaining with the Secretary.

Section 8. Chief Financial Officer. The Chief Financial Officer shall make provision for the care and custody of all funds of the Corporation, shall make provision for the deposit of such funds as required and designated by the Board of Directors, shall make provision for the maintenance of adequate accounts of the properties and business transactions of the Corporation, shall render reports and financial statements to the Directors as required by the Board of Directors. In addition, the Chief Financial Officer shall keep and maintain or cause to be kept and maintained adequate and correct accounts of the properties and business transactions of the Corporation, including accounts of its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains and losses. The books of account shall at all times be open to inspection by any Director. The Chief Financial Officer shall deposit or cause to be deposited all monies and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Chief Financial Officer shall disburse or cause to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as shall be ordered by the Board of Directors, shall render to the Chairperson of the Board and Directors, whenever they shall request it, an account of all transactions as Chief Financial Officer and the financial condition of the Corporation, shall take or cause to be taken proper vouchers for all disbursements of the funds of the Corporation, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors and by these bylaws. Subject to the policies and direction of the Board of Directors, the Chief Financial Officer shall report to and be subject to the direct supervision of the President. All or part of the above duties may be delegated to staff of the Corporation with ultimate responsibility remaining with the Chief Financial Officer.

Section 9. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall exercise general oversight of the financial affairs of the Corporation on behalf of the Board of Directors, with ultimate responsibility for such matters, however, remaining with the Chief Financial Officer. The Treasurer shall serve without compensation.

Section 10. Executive Director. If, and at such time as the Board of Directors may appoint an Executive Director, he or she may also be, as determined by the Board, the President (Chief Executive Officer) of the Corporation and as such shall have the authority and responsibility for the day-to-day management and administration of the affairs, employees and resources of the Corporation, and for implementation, of the policies and programs of the Corporation. The Executive Director shall, subject to the policies of the Corporation, employ, supervise, manage, control and discharge the employees of the Corporation. The Executive Director shall advise and counsel the Board of Directors in matters of policy and shall act as a representative for the Corporation at community, state and national meetings.

Section 11. Removal. All officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board. Any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by the Board of Directors at any time. The removal of any officer shall be without prejudice to the rights, if any, of him or her under any contract of employment with the Corporation.

Section 12. Resignation. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Corporation, but without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the Corporation under any contract to which the officer is a party. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 13. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in these bylaws for regular election or appointment of such office, provided that such vacancies shall be filled as they occur and not on an annual basis.

ARTICLE V - COMMITTEES

Section 1. Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors then in office, designate one or more committees of the Board consisting of two or more Directors, and only of directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. Appointments to committees of the Board shall be by majority vote of a quorum of the Board. The Board may appoint one or more Directors as alternate members of any such committee, who may replace any absent member at any committee meeting. Any member of any committee may be removed, with or without cause, at any time by the Board. The Executive Committee and any other committee having the authority of the Board shall be comprised of at least three (3) Directors, and may be delegated any of the powers and authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, except as provided in Section 6 of this Article V.

Section 2. Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall be a standing committee and shall consist of the Chairperson of the Board, the immediate past Chairperson of the Board (if still serving as a Director) and officers of the Corporation who are also Directors, and such other Directors as shall be appointed from time to time. By invitation, the President shall preside over meetings of the Executive Committee, otherwise the Chairperson of the Board shall be the chairperson of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee, unless limited by a resolution of the Board, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation at such times as the Board is not in session. The Executive Committee shall hold such meetings as shall be directed by the Board of Directors or called by the Chairperson of the Board at such times and places as may be convenient to conduct business. Each committee member shall have one vote and all matters shall be decided by a unanimous vote. A majority of the committee shall constitute a quorum. A member of the committee may not vote by proxy. All actions taken by the Executive Committee shall be reported at the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Compensation Committee and Compensation Review. At any time this Corporation compensates its President or Chief Financial Officer, the Corporation shall have a Compensation Committee consisting of at least three Directors and exclusively of Directors, unless the compensation review activities described in this Section 3 are otherwise undertaken directly by the Board of Directors. Directors who are also employees of the Corporation may not serve on the Compensation Committee. Subject to the foregoing, the Executive Committee may act in the capacity of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee shall review the compensation of the President, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer (if any), and Vice President (if any) as well as of such other officers of the Corporation as the Compensation Committee determines appropriate. This review shall occur when such officer is hired, when the term of employment of such officer is renewed or extended, and when the compensation of such officer is modified, unless the modification applies to substantially all of the employees of this Corporation. Based on its review, the Compensation Committee shall recommend just and reasonable compensation amounts to the Board. At the request of the President or the Board, the Compensation Committee shall review any issue involving staff compensation and benefits, including but not limited to health and retirement plans.

Section 4. Audit Committee. At all times that this Corporation is required by applicable law to have an independent audit, or at any time the Corporation voluntarily chooses to do so, the Corporation shall have an Audit Committee consisting of at least two Directors and which may include nonvoting advisors. Directors who are employees of the Corporation or who receive, directly or indirectly, any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fees from the Corporation (other than for service as Director) may not serve on the Audit Committee. The President and Treasurer, if also Directors, may serve on the Audit Committee only if such persons are volunteers and are not compensated by this Corporation. The Audit Committee shall perform the duties and adhere to the guidelines set forth from time to time by the Board. These duties include, but are not limited to: (i) assisting the Board in choosing an independent auditor and recommending termination of the auditor, if necessary, (ii) negotiating the auditor's compensation, (iii) conferring with the auditor regarding the Corporation's financial affairs, and (iv) reviewing and accepting or rejecting the audit. Members of the Audit Committee shall not receive compensation for their service on the Audit Committee in excess of that provided to Directors for their service on the Board. If the Corporation has a Finance Committee, a majority of the members of the Audit Committee may not concurrently serve as members of the Finance Committee, and the Chair of the Audit Committee may not serve on the Finance Committee.

Section 5. Additional Committees. The Board of Directors may appoint one or more additional committees, each consisting of three (3) or more Directors and such other persons as the Board may specify, to serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. Any such committee must be created, and the members thereof appointed by resolution adopted by a majority of the authorized number of Directors then in office provided a quorum is present. The Board of Directors may appoint, in the same manner, alternate members of any committee who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee. All members of all committees shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which proceedings of any such committee shall be conducted. In the absence of any such prescription, such committee shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which its proceedings shall be conducted. Unless the Board or such committee shall otherwise provide, the regular and special meetings and other actions of any such committee shall be governed by the provisions of Article III applicable to meetings and actions of the Board of Directors. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of each committee. The Board of Directors may delegate to any such committee any of the authority of the Board of Directors except as provided in Section 6 of this Article V.

Section 6. Advisory Committees. The Board of Directors may appoint one or more advisory committees each consisting of Directors, nondirectors, or Directors and nondirectors. Advisory committees shall have no legal authority to act for the Corporation, but shall report their findings and recommendations to the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Prohibited Delegation of Authority. The Board of Directors shall not delegate to any committee any of the following authority:

(a) The approval of any action for which the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law also requires approval of the members or approval of a majority of all members;

(b) The filling of vacancies on the Board of Directors or on any committee that has the authority of the Board;

(c) The fixing of compensation of the Directors for serving on the Board of Directors or on any committee;

(d) The amendment or repeal of articles of incorporation or bylaws or the adoption of new bylaws;

(e) The amendment or repeal of any resolution of the Board of Directors which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable;

(f) The appointment of other committees of the Board of Directors or the members thereof;

(g) The expenditure of corporate funds to support a nominee for Director after there are more people nominated for Director than can be elected; or

(h) The approval of any self-dealing transaction, as such transactions are defined in Section 5233(a) of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law.

Section 8. Meeting and Action of Committees. Meetings and actions of committees of the Board shall be governed by and held, in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws concerning meetings and other board actions, except that the time for regular meetings of such committees and the calling of special meetings of such committees may be determined either by board resolution or, if there is none, by resolution of the committee of the Board. Minutes of each meeting of any committee of the Board shall be kept and shall be filed with the corporate records. The Board may adopt rules for the government of any committee, provided they are consistent with these bylaws or, in the absence of rules adopted by the Board, the committee may adopt such rules.

ARTICLE VI - RECORDS AND REPORTS

Section 1. Maintenance of Articles and Bylaws. The Corporation shall keep at its principal executive office the original or a copy of its Articles and Bylaws as amended to date.

Section 2. Maintenance of Other Corporate Records. The accounting books, records, and minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors and any committee(s) of the Board of Directors shall be kept at such place or places designated by the Board of Directors, or, in the absence of such designation, at the principal executive office of the Corporation. The minutes shall be kept in written or typed form, and the accounting books and records shall be kept in either written or typed form or in any other form capable of being converted into written, typed, or printed form.

Section 3. Inspection by Directors. Every Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records, and documents of every kind and the physical properties of the Corporation and each of its subsidiary corporations. This inspection by a Director may be made in person or by an agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts of documents.

Section 4. Annual Report. Within 120 days after the end of the Corporation's fiscal year, the President shall furnish or cause to be furnished a written report to all Directors containing the following information:

(a) The assets and liabilities, including the trust funds, of the Corporation as of the end of the fiscal year;

(b) The principal changes in assets and liabilities, including trust funds, during the fiscal year;

(c) The revenue or receipts of the Corporation, both unrestricted and restricted for particular purposes, for the fiscal year;

(d) The expenses or disbursements of the Corporation, for both general and restricted purposes, during the fiscal year;

(e) Any transaction during the previous fiscal year involving more than $50,000 in which the Corporation (or its parent or subsidiaries, if any) was a party and in which any director or officer of the Corporation has a direct or indirect financial interest, or any of a number of such transactions in which the same person had a direct or indirect financial interest and which transactions in the aggregate involved more than $50,000; and

(f) The amount and circumstances of any indemnifications or advances aggregating more than $10,000 paid during the fiscal year to any director or officer of the Corporation pursuant to Article 7 of these bylaws, unless such indemnification has already been approved pursuant to Section 7.5.

For each transaction, the report must disclose the names of the interested persons involved in such transaction and state such person's relationship to the corporation, the nature of such person's interest in the transaction and, where practicable, the value of such interest.

The report shall be accompanied by any report of independent accountants or, if there is no such report, by the certificate of an authorized officer of this Corporation that such statements were prepared without an audit from the books and records of this Corporation. Such report may be furnished to the directors by electronic transmission in accordance with Section 10.1 of these bylaws.

Section 5. Financial Audit. The Corporation shall obtain a financial audit for any tax year in which it receives or accrues gross revenue of $2 million or more, excluding grant or contract income from any governmental entity for which the governmental entity requires an accounting. Any audited financial statements obtained by the Corporation, whether or not required by law, shall be made available for inspection by the Attorney General and by the general public within nine (9) months after the close of the fiscal year to which the statements relate. For three (3) years, such statements (a) shall be available at the Corporation's principal, regional, and district offices during regular business hours and (b) shall be made available either by mailing a copy to any person who so requests in person or in writing, or by posting them on the Corporation's website.

ARTICLE VII - CONTRACTS AND LOANS WITH DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 1. Contracts with Directors and Officers.

(a) No Director or Officer of this Corporation, nor any other corporation, firm, association, or other entity in which one or more of this Corporation's Directors or Officers are directors or have a material financial interest, shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or other transaction with this Corporation, unless (i) the material facts regarding such Director's or Officer's financial interest in such contract or transaction and/or regarding such common directorship, officership, or financial interest are fully disclosed in good faith and are noted in the minutes, or are known to all members of the Board prior to consideration by the Board of such contract or transaction; (ii) such contract or transaction is authorized in good faith by a majority of the Board by a vote sufficient for that purpose without counting the vote or votes of such interested Director(s); (iii) prior to authorizing or approving the transaction, the Board considers and in good faith determines after reasonable investigation under the circumstances that the Corporation could not obtain a more advantageous arrangement with reasonable effort under the circumstances; and (iv) this Corporation enters into the transaction for its own benefit, and the transaction is fair and reasonable to this Corporation at the time the transaction is entered into.

(b) The provisions of this Section 1 of Article VII do not apply to a transaction which is part of an educational or charitable program of the Corporation if it: (i) is approved or authorized by the Corporation in good faith and without unjustified favoritism; and (ii) results in a benefit to one or more Directors or Officers or their families because they are in the class of persons intended to be benefited by the educational or charitable program of this Corporation.

Section 2. Loans to Directors and Officers. The Corporation shall not make any loan of money or property to or guarantee the obligation of any Director or Officer, unless approved by the Attorney General of the State of California; provided, however, that the Corporation may advance money to a Director or Officer of the Corporation for expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in the performance of the duties of such Director or Officer, provided that in the absence of such advance such Director or Officer would be entitled to be reimbursed for such expenses by the Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII - FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall end on June 30. The Board may change the fiscal year of the Corporation as it is deemed necessary, subject to applicable law and requisite approval from any governmental agencies.

ARTICLE IX - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Voting Shares. The Corporation may vote any and all shares held by it in any other corporation by such officer, agent or proxy as the Board of Directors may appoint, or in the absence of any such appointment, by the Chairperson of the Board or by any other officer, if also a Director and, in such case, such officers or any of them, may likewise appoint a proxy to vote said shares.

Section 2. Checks, Drafts Etc. All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidence of indebtedness issued in the name of or payable to the Corporation and any and all securities owned or held by the Corporation requiring signature for the transfer shall be signed or endorsed by such person or persons and in such manner as from time to time shall be determined by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee, if any.

Section 3. Endorsement of Documents; Contracts. Subject to the provisions of applicable laws, any note, mortgage, evidence of indebtedness, contract, conveyance or other instrument in writing, and any assignment or endorsement thereof, executed or entered into between the Corporation and any other person, when signed by any officer, shall be valid and binding on the Corporation in the absence of actual knowledge on the part of the other person that the signing officer(s) had no authority to execute the same. Any such instruments may be signed by any other person or persons and in such manner as from time to time shall be determined by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee, and, unless so authorized by the Board of Directors, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or amount

Section 4. Construction and Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the general provisions, rules of construction and definitions contained in the general provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law and in the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law shall govern the construction of these bylaws.

Section 5. Gender. As used in these bylaws, the masculine gender shall include both the masculine and the feminine gender.

Section 6. Electronic Transmission. Subject to any guidelines and procedures that the Board of Directors may adopt from time to time, the terms “written,” and “in writing” as used in these bylaws include any form of recorded message in the English language capable of comprehension by ordinary visual means and may include electronic transmissions, such as facsimile or email, provided (i) for electronic transmissions from the Corporation, the Corporation has obtained an unrevoked written consent from the recipient to the use of such means of communication; (ii) for electronic transmissions to the Corporation, the Corporation has in effect reasonable measures to verify that the sender is the individual purporting to have sent such transmission; and (iii) the transmission creates a record that can be retained, retrieved, reviewed, and rendered into clearly legible tangible form.

ARTICLE X - INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this Article VII, “agent” means any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation; and “proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative; and “expenses” includes, without limitation, attorneys’ fees and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification under Sections 4 or 5(b) of this Article VII.

Section 2. Indemnification in Actions by Third Parties. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, an action brought under Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, or an action brought by the Attorney General or a person granted relator status by the Attorney General for any breach of duty relating to assets held in charitable trust) by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 3. Indemnification in Actions by or in the Right of the Corporation. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the Corporation, or brought under Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, or brought by the Attorney General or a person granted relator status by the Attorney General for breach of duty relating to assets held in charitable trust, to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action if such person acted in good faith, in a manner such person believed to be in the best interest of the Corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. No indemnification shall be made under this Section 3:

(a) In respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation in the performance of such person's duty to the Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which such court shall determine;

(b) Of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a threatened or pending action, with or without court approval; or

(c) Of expenses incurred in defending a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval, unless it is settled with the approval of the Attorney General.

Section 4. Indemnification Against Expenses. To the extent that an agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to in Section 2 or 3 of this Article VII or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

Section 5. Required Determinations. Except as provided in Section 4 of this Article VII any indemnification under this Article VII shall be made by the Corporation only if authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 2 or 3 of this Article VII, by:

(a) A majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such proceeding; or

(b) The court in which such proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the Corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not such application by the agent, attorney or other person is opposed by the Corporation.

Section 6. Advance of Expenses. Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the Corporation prior to the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay such amount unless it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Article VII.

Section 7. Other Indemnification. No provision made by the Corporation to indemnify its or its subsidiary's directors or officers for the defense of any proceeding, whether contained in the articles of incorporation, bylaws, a resolution of the directors, an agreement or otherwise, shall be valid unless consistent with this Article VII. Nothing contained in this Article VII shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than such directors and officers may be entitled by contract or otherwise. The Corporation shall have the power to indemnify, to advance expenses to, or to procure insurance for any person, who is an agent of the Corporation as long as such actions are consistent with this Article VII and comply with the California Nonprofit Corporation Law.

Section 8. Forms of Indemnification not Permitted. No indemnification or advance shall be made under this Article VII, except as provided in Sections 4 or 5(b), in any circumstances where it appears:

(a) That it would be inconsistent with a provision of the articles of incorporation, these bylaws or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or

(b) That it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

Section 9. Indemnification Not Exclusive. The indemnification provided herein shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Insurance. The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the Corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of this Article VII, provided, however, that the Corporation shall have no power to purchase and maintain such insurance to indemnify any agent of the Corporation for a violation of Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

Section 11. Nonapplicability to Fiduciaries of Employee Benefit Plans. This Article VII does not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan in such person's capacity as such, even though such person may also be an agent of the Corporation as defined in Section 1 of this Article VII. The Corporation shall have power to indemnify such trustee, investment manager or other fiduciary to the extent permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 207 of the California General Corporation Law.

ARTICLE XI - AMENDMENT

These bylaws and any part thereof may be amended and repealed and new bylaws may be adopted only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the number of Directors of the Corporation then in office.

Dear Applicant:

Based on information you supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3).

Because you are a newly created organization, we are not now making a final determination of your foundation status under section 509(a) of the Code. However, we have determined that you can reasonably expect to be a publicly supported organization described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Accordingly, during an advance ruling period you will be treated as a publicly supported organization, and not as a private foundation. This advance ruling period begins and ends on the dates shown above.

Within 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period, you must send us the information needed to determine whether you have met the requirements of the applicable support test during the advance ruling period. If you establish that you have been a publicly supported organization, we will classify you as a section 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) organization as long as you continue to meet the requirements of the applicable support test. If you do not meet the public support requirements during the advance ruling period, we will classify you as a private foundation for future periods. Also, if we classify you as a private foundation, we will treat you as a private foundation from your beginning date for purposes of section 507(d) and 4940.

Grantors and contributors may rely on our determination that you are not a private foundation until 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period. If you send us the required information within the 90 days, grantors and contributors may continue to rely on the advance determination until we make a final determination of your foundation status.

WAKELAND HOUSING AND DEVELOPMENT

If we publish a notice in the Internal Revenue Bulletin stating that we will no longer treat you as a publicly supported organization, grantors and contributors may not rely on this determination after the date we publish the notice. In addition, if you lose your status as a publicly supported organization, and a grantor or contributor was responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act, that resulted in your loss of such status, that person may not rely on this determination from the date of the act or failure to act. Also, if a grantor or contributor learned that we had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a publicly supported organization, then that person may not rely on this determination as of the date he or she acquired such knowledge.

If you change your sources of support, your purposes, character, or method of operation, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. If you amend your organizational document or bylaws, please send us a copy of the amended document or bylaws. Also, let us know all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for social security taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act on amounts of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Organizations that are not private foundations are not subject to the private foundation excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other federal taxes, please let us know.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Donors may deduct contributions to you only to the extent that their contributions are gifts, with no consideration received. Ticket purchases and similar payments in conjunction with fundraising events may not necessarily qualify as deductible contributions, depending on the circumstances. Revenue Ruling 67-246, published in Cumulative Bulletin 1967-2, on page 104, gives guidelines regarding when taxpayers may deduct payments for admission to, or other participation in, fundraising activities for charity.

Contributions to you are deductible by donors beginning December 23, 1998.

You are not required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, if your gross receipts each year are normally $25,000 or less. If you receive a Form 990 package in the mail, simply attach the label provided, check the box in the heading to indicate that your annual gross receipts are normally $25,000 or less, and sign the return. Because you will be treated as a public charity for return filing purposes during your entire advance ruling period, you should file Form 990 for each year in your advance ruling period that you exceed the $25,000 filing threshold even if your sources of support do not satisfy the public support test specified in the heading of this letter.

If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. A penalty of $20 a day is charged when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay. However, the maximum penalty charged cannot exceed $10,000 or 5 percent of your gross receipts for the year, whichever is less. For organizations with gross receipts exceeding $1,000,000 in any year, the penalty is $100 per day per return, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay. The maximum penalty for an organization with gross receipts exceeding $1,000,000 shall not exceed $50,000. This penalty may also be charged if a return is not complete. So, please be sure your return is complete before you file it.

You are not required to file federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

The law requires you to make your annual return available for public inspection without charge for three years after the due date of the return. You are also required to make available for public inspection a copy of your exemption application, any supporting documents and this exemption letter to any individual who requests such documents in person or in writing. You can charge only a reasonable fee for reproduction and actual postage costs for the copied materials. The law does not require you to provide copies of public inspection documents that are made widely available, such as by posting them on the Internet (World Wide Web). You may be liable for a penalty of $20 a day for each day you do not make these documents available for public inspection (up to a maximum of $10,000 in the case of an annual return).

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, we will assign a number to you and advise you of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

This ruling is based on the understanding that the majority of your Board of Directors will be non-salaried and will not be related to salaried personnel or to parties providing services. It is also based on the understanding that salaried individuals cannot vote on their own compensation and that compensation decisions will be made by the board.

In accordance with section 508(a) of the Code, the effective date of this determination letter is December 23, 1998.

WAKELAND HOUSING AND DEVELOPMENT

This determination is based on evidence that your funds are dedicated to the purposes listed in section 501(c)(3) of the Code. To assure your continued exemption, you should keep records to show that funds are spent only for those purposes. If you distribute funds to other organizations, your records should show whether they are exempt under section 501(c)(3). In cases where the recipient organization is not exempt under section 501(c)(3), you must have evidence that the funds will remain dedicated to the required purposes and that the recipient will use the funds for those purposes.

If you distribute funds to individuals, you should keep case histories showing the recipients' names, addresses, purposes of awards, manner of selection, and relationship (if any) to members, officers, trustees or donors of funds to you, so that you can substantiate upon request by the Internal Revenue Service any and all distributions you made to individuals. (Revenue Ruling 56-304, C.B. 1956-2, page 306.)

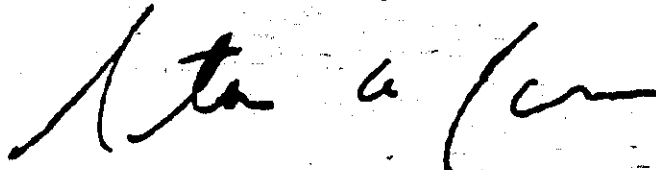

If we said in the heading of this letter that an addendum applies, the addendum enclosed is an integral part of this letter.

Because this letter could help us resolve any questions about your exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

We have sent a copy of this letter to your representative as indicated in your power of attorney.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

District Director

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the following:

COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY COVERAGE PART
SCHEDULE

Effective Date: 06/30/2022

Name of Person or Organization (Additional Insured):

Blanket- Where required by contract

SECTION II – WHO IS AN INSURED is amended to include as an additional insured the person(s) or organization(s) shown in the endorsement Schedule, but only with respect to liability for “bodily injury,” “property damage” or “personal and advertising injury” arising out of or relating to your negligence in the performance of “your work” for such person(s) or organization(s) that occurs on or after the effective date shown in the endorsement Schedule.

This insurance is primary to and non-contributory with any other insurance maintained by the person or organization (Additional Insured), except for loss resulting from the sole negligence of that person or organization.

This condition applies even if other valid and collectible insurance is available to the Additional Insured for a loss or “occurrence” we cover for this Additional Insured.

The Additional Insured’s limits of insurance do not increase our limits of insurance, as described in SECTION III – LIMITS OF INSURANCE.

All other terms, conditions, and exclusions under the policy are applicable to this endorsement and remain unchanged.

DESIGNATED LOCATION(S) GENERAL AGGREGATE LIMIT

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the following:

COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY COVERAGE PART

SCHEDULE

Designated Location(s):
per loc schedule

Information required to complete this Schedule, if not shown above, will be shown in the Declarations.

- A. For all sums which the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages caused by "occurrences" under Section I – Coverage A, and for all medical expenses caused by accidents under Section I – Coverage C, which can be attributed only to operations at a single designated "location" shown in the Schedule above:
1. A separate Designated Location General Aggregate Limit applies to each designated "location", and that limit is equal to the amount of the General Aggregate Limit shown in the Declarations.
 2. The Designated Location General Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay for the sum of all damages under Coverage A, except damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" included in the "products-completed operations hazard", and for medical expenses under Coverage C regardless of the number of:
 - a. Insureds;
 - b. Claims made or "suits" brought; or
 - c. Persons or organizations making claims or bringing "suits".
 3. Any payments made under Coverage A for damages or under Coverage C for medical expenses shall reduce the Designated Location General Aggregate Limit for that designated "location". Such payments shall not reduce the General Aggregate Limit shown in the Declarations nor shall they reduce any other Designated Location General Aggregate Limit for any other designated "location" shown in the Schedule above.
 4. The limits shown in the Declarations for Each Occurrence, Damage To Premises Rented To You and Medical Expense continue to apply. However, instead of being subject to the General Aggregate Limit shown in the Declarations, such limits will be subject to the applicable Designated Location General Aggregate Limit.

- B. For all sums which the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages caused by "occurrences" under Section I – Coverage A, and for all medical expenses caused by accidents under Section I – Coverage C, which cannot be attributed only to operations at a single designated "location" shown in the Schedule above:
1. Any payments made under Coverage A for damages or under Coverage C for medical expenses shall reduce the amount available under the General Aggregate Limit or the Products-completed Operations Aggregate Limit, whichever is applicable; and
 2. Such payments shall not reduce any Designated Location General Aggregate Limit.
- C. When coverage for liability arising out of the "products-completed operations hazard" is provided, any payments for damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" included in the "products-completed operations hazard" will reduce the Products-completed Operations Aggregate Limit, and not reduce the General Aggregate Limit nor the Designated Location General Aggregate Limit.
- D. For the purposes of this endorsement, the Definitions Section is amended by the addition of the following definition:
- "Location" means premises involving the same or connecting lots, or premises whose connection is interrupted only by a street, roadway, waterway or right-of-way of a railroad.
- E. The provisions of Section III – Limits Of Insurance not otherwise modified by this endorsement shall continue to apply as stipulated.

- b. the loss is covered by any other insurance you have or by any insurance of such person who causes such loss.

These payments will not reduce the Limits of Insurance.

O. Additional Insured - Manager or Lessor of Premises

- 1. SECTION II - WHO IS AN INSURED is amended to include as an additional insured any person or organization from whom you lease or rent property and which requires you to add such person or organization as an additional insured on this Policy under:

- (a) a written contract; or
- (b) an oral agreement or contract where a Certificate of Insurance showing that person or organization as an additional insured has been issued;

- (ii) executed prior to the "bodily injury," "property damage," "personal and advertising injury."

- 2. With respect to the insurance afforded to the Additional Insured identified in paragraph 1. above, the following additional provisions apply:

- (a) This insurance applies only with respect to the liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of that part of the premises leased to you.
- (b) The Limits of Insurance applicable to the Additional Insured are the lesser of those specified in the written contract or agreement or in the Declarations for this Policy and subject to all the terms, conditions and exclusions for this Policy. - (c) In no event shall the coverages or Limits of Insurance in this Coverage Form be increased by such contract.
- (d) Coverage provided herein is excess over any other valid and collectible insurance available to the Additional Insured whether the other insurance is primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis unless a written contractual arrangement specifically requires this insurance to be primary.

- d. In no event shall the coverages or Limits of Insurance in this Coverage Form be increased by such contract.

Q. Additional Insureds - By Contract

1. SECTION II - WHO IS AN INSURED is amended to include as an insured any person or organization whom you have agreed to add as an additional insured in a written contract, written agreement or permit. Such person or organization is an additional insured but only with respect to liability for "bodily injury," "property damage" or "personal and advertising injury" arising out of:

- a. your acts or omissions, or the acts or omissions of those acting on your behalf, in the performance of your ongoing operations for the Additional Insured that are subject of the written contract or written agreement provided that the "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurs, or the "personal and advertising injury" is committed, subsequent to the signing of such written contract or written agreement; or
- b. the maintenance, operation or use by you of equipment rented or leased to you by such person or organization; or
- c. the Additional Insureds financial control of you; or
- d. operations performed by you or on your behalf for which the state or political subdivision has issued a permit

However:

- 1. the insurance afforded to such additional insured only applies to the extent permitted by law; and
- 2. if coverage provided to the Additional Insured is required by contract or agreement, the insurance afforded to such additional insured will not be broader than that which you are required by the contract or agreement to provide such additional insured.

With respect to paragraph 1.a. above, a person's or organization's status as an additional insured under this Endorsement ends when:

- (1) all work, including materials, parts or equipment furnished in connection with such work, on the project (other than service, maintenance or repairs) to be performed for or on behalf of the Additional Insured(s) at the location of the covered operations has been completed; or
- (2) that portion of "your work" out of which the injury or damage arises has been put to its intended use by any person or organization other than another contractor or subcontractor engaged in performing operations for a principal as a part of the same project.

With respect to paragraph 1.b. above, this insurance does not apply to any "occurrence" which takes place after the equipment rental or lease agreement has expired or you have returned such equipment to the lessor.

The insurance provided by this Endorsement applies only if the written contract or written agreement is signed prior to the "bodily injury" or "property damage."

We have no duty to defend an additional insured under this Endorsement until we receive written notice of a "suit" by the Additional Insured as required in paragraph b. of Condition 2. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit under SECTION IV - COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY CONDITION.

2. With respect to the insurance provided by this Endorsement, the following are added to paragraph 2. Exclusions under SECTION I - COVERAGE A - Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability:

This insurance does not apply to:

- a. "Bodily injury" or "property damage" that occurs prior to your commencing operations at the location where such "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurs.
- b. "Bodily injury," "property damage" or "personal and advertising injury" arising out of the rendering of, or failure to render, any professional architectural, engineering or surveying services, including:
 - (1) the preparing, approving, or failing to prepare or approve, maps, shop drawings, opinions, reports, surveys, field orders, change orders or drawings and specifications; or
 - (2) supervisory, inspection, architectural or engineering activities.

This exclusion applies even if the claims against any insured allege negligence or other wrongdoing in the supervision, hiring, employment, training or monitoring of others by that Insured, if the "occurrence" which caused the "bodily injury" or "property damage," or the offense which caused the "personal and advertising injury," involved the rendering of, or failure to render, any professional architectural, engineering or surveying services.

- c. "Bodily injury" or "property damage" occurring after:
 - (1) all work, including materials, parts or equipment furnished in connection with such work, on the project (other than service, maintenance or repairs) to be performed for or on behalf of the Additional Insured(s) at the location of the covered operations has been completed; or
 - (2) that portion of "your work" out of which the injury or damage arises has been put to its intended use by any person or organization other than another contractor or subcontractor engaged in performing operations for a principal as a part of the same project.

3. With respect to the insurance afforded to these Additional Insureds, the following is added to SECTION III - LIMITS OF INSURANCE:

whichever is less.

This Endorsement shall not increase the applicable Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations.

Condition 4. Other Insurance of SECTION IV - COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY CONDITIONS is amended as follows:

a. The following is added to paragraph a. Primary Insurance:

This insurance is primary to and will not seek contribution from any other insurance available to an additional insured under your policy provided that:

- (1) the Additional Insured is a named insured under such other insurance; and
- (2) you have agreed in writing in a contract or agreement that this insurance would be primary and would not seek contribution from any other insurance available to the Additional Insured.

b. The following is added to paragraph b. Excess Insurance:

When a written contract or written agreement, other than a premises lease, facilities rental contract or agreement, an equipment rental or lease contract or agreement or permit issued by a state or political subdivision between you and an additional insured does not require this insurance to be primary or primary and non-contributory, this insurance is excess over any other insurance for which the Additional Insured is designated as a named insured.

Regardless of the written agreement between you and an additional insured, this insurance is excess over any other insurance whether primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis for which the Additional Insured has been added as an additional insured on other policies.

S. Additional Insureds - Protection of Your Limits

This provision applies to any person or organization who qualifies as an additional insured under any form or endorsement under this Policy.

1. The following is added to Condition 2. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit:

 - b. tender the defense and indemnity of any claim or "suit" to all insurers whom also have insurance available to the Additional Insured; and
 - c. agree to make available any other insurance which the Additional Insured has for a loss we cover under this Coverage Part.
 - d. we have no duty to defend or indemnify an additional insured under this Endorsement until we receive written notice of a "suit" by the Additional Insured.
2. The Limits of Insurance applicable to the Additional Insured are those specified in a written contract or written agreement or the Limits of Insurance stated in the Declarations of this Policy and defined in SECTION III - LIMITS OF INSURANCE of this Policy, whichever are less. These limits are inclusive of and not in addition to the Limits of Insurance available under this Policy.

T. Blanket Waiver of Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others to Us (Subrogation)

Under SECTION IV - COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY CONDITIONS, the following is added to Condition 8. Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others to Us:

If required by a written contract or written agreement, we waive any right of recovery we may have against a person or organization because of payment we make for injury or damage arising out of your ongoing operations or "your work" done under a contract for that person or organization and included in the "products-completed operations hazard" provided that the injury or damage occurs subsequent to the execution of the written contract or written agreement.

U. Property Damage Extension with Voluntary Payments

1. The following is added to paragraph 1. Insuring Agreement of SECTION I - COVERAGE A - Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability:

At your request we will pay for "loss" to property of others caused by your business operations for which this Policy provides liability insurance. Such payment will be made without regard to your legal obligation to do so. The "loss" must occur during the policy period and must take place in the "coverage territory."

2. With respect to the coverage afforded under paragraph 1. above, paragraph 2. Exclusions of SECTION I - COVERAGES A - Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability is amended as follows:

Exclusions j.(3), j.(4), j.(5) and j.(6) are deleted.

3. As respects coverage afforded by this coverage, SECTION III - LIMITS OF INSURANCE is replaced by the following:

Regardless of the number of insureds, claims made or "suits" brought or persons or organizations making claims or bring "suits":

1. Subject to 2. Below, the most we will pay for one or more "loss" arising out of any one "occurrence" is $ 1,000.
2. The aggregate amount we will pay for the sum of all "loss" in an annual period is $ 5,000. This aggregate amount is part of and not in addition to the General Aggregate Limit described in paragraph 2. of SECTION III - LIMITS OF INSURANCE.

V. Who Is an Insured - Fellow Employee Extension - Management Employees

1. The following is added to paragraph 2.a.(1) of SECTION II - WHO IS AN INSURED:

Paragraph (a) and (b) above do not apply to "bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury" caused by an "employee" who is acting in a supervisory capacity for you. Supervisory capacity as used herein means the "employee's" job responsibilities assigned by you, including the direct supervision of other "employee" of yours. However, none of these "employees" are insureds for "bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury" arising out of their willful conduct, which is defined as the purposeful or willful intent to cause "bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury," caused in whole or in part by their intoxication by liquor or controlled substances.

This coverage is excess over any other valid and collectable insurance available to your "employee."

W. Broadened Personal and Advertising Injury

A. Loss Payable

For Covered Property in which both you and a Loss Payee shown in the Schedule have an insurable interest, we will:

1. Adjust "loss" with you; and
2. Pay any claim for "loss" jointly to you and the Loss Payee, as interests may appear.

B. Lender's Loss Payable

1. The Loss Payee shown in the Schedule is a creditor, including a mortgageholder or trustee, whose interest in the Covered Property is established by such written instruments as:

- a. Warehouse receipts;
- b. A contract for deed;
- c. Bills of lading;

1. Loss Payable Clause

For Covered Property in which both you and a Loss Payee shown in the Schedule or in the Declarations have an insurable interest, we will:

- (b) Submits a signed, sworn proof of loss within 60 days after receiving notice from us of your failure to do so; and

- (a) The Loss Payee's rights will be transferred to us to the extent of the amount we pay; and
- (b) The Loss Payee's rights to recover the full amount of the Loss Payee's claim will not be impaired.

At our option, we may pay to the Loss Payee the whole principal on the debt plus any accrued interest. In this event, you will pay your remaining debt to us.

c. If we cancel this policy, we will give written notice to the Loss Payee at least:

- (1) 10 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for your nonpayment of premium; or
- (2) 30 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for any other reason.
