

SAN DIEGO
HOUSING
COMMISSION

Are you experiencing homelessness in the City of San Diego?

Do you need assistance securing housing?

The San Diego Housing Commission's (SDHC)
Homelessness Diversion Program may be able to assist you.

What We Offer

Homelessness Diversion Program staff work with households and landlords to quickly remove barriers to resolve the household's current housing crisis. The program also provides tools and resources for ongoing housing stability. The program may provide the following services:

- Case Management
- Landlord Advocacy
- Application Fees
- Security Deposit
- Utility Assistance
- Short-Term Rental Assistance

Eligibility Requirements

To qualify for assistance, households must meet the following criteria:

- Currently residing in the City of San Diego
- Literally homeless or staying in a hotel paid by a program
- Demonstrated ability to pay rent after receiving short-term assistance
- Not matched to another resource or receiving another rental housing subsidy
- Have an active approval for a rental unit
- Income below 80% of San Diego's Area Median Income (AMI) based on the household's size
- Have assets equal to or less than $2,000

How to Apply

Call 619-578-7768 (managed by 2-1-1 San Diego)

SDHC programs are offered each fiscal year subject to funding availability and operate within funding constraints and eligibility criteria. Availability of services may vary.